1. Genealogical errors and their correction

Possibly what first inspired me to do a Blake one-name Study was the error in my line way back in the 1500s which was perpetuated in so many books that I had the opportunity to review. It was really a tiny error but being used so many times its significance was magnified through the years.

Francis E Blake of Boston in 1891 resolved to correct an error in his Blake family by publishing his article that he wrote for the New England Historical and Genealogical Register for January 1891. Francis Blake later published this same article and I have inserted the link to his published copy which is available on Internet Archive.

The Blake Family in England by Francis E Blake of Boston*Boston: David Clapp & Son, Printers. 1891

In a “Genealogical History of William Blake of Dorchester,” published in 1857, appears the statement that the emigrant to New England was the son of Giles Blake of Little Baddow, Essex, and the record of several generations of the family is given. The substance of this record is trustworthy as being a copy from “Morant’s History of Essex,” but the statement that the Dorchester settler was of this family was unwarranted by any evidence. Subsequently the late H. G. Somerby, Esq., by request of Stanton Blake, Esq., made extended researches in England to determine the origin of the American family. He finally located it at Over Stowey, Somerset, and the results of his investigations were published in 1881, by W. H. Whitmore, Esq., in “A Record of the Blakes of Somersetshire.”

The evidences upon which Mr. Somerby based his conclusions were, first, the record of a baptism in 1594, at Over Stowey, of a William Blake (son of Robert and grandson of John), the date corresponding to the age of the emigrant at death; and second, the fact that a sister of this William in her will of date 1647, mentioned a “brother in New England,” no name however being given. While this evidence was not all that could be desired, it was generally accepted as correct, and the pedigree has been copied in several other genealogical publications.

In 1881, Rev. Charles M. Blake, U.S.A., while visiting in England, was shown by William Blake, Esq., of South Petherton, a genealogical chart of the “Blakes of Somersetshire,” prepared by William Arthur Jones, Esq., A.M.

An examination of this chart led Mr. Blake to visit Pitminster, four miles from Taunton, where he found upon the parish registers sufficient evidence to convince him that this was the early home of his ancestor William Blake, but he was unable at that time to give the matter further attention.

Recently, investigations have been made by the writer, through correspondence with the vicar of the parish, and with Edward J. Blake, Esq., of Crewkerne. The latter himself examined the registers of Pitminster, and Over Stowey, and he has had a careful examination made of wills and other original sources of information, for the purpose of determining his own line of descent and verifying the chart referred to. The result of these researches, so far as relates to the American family, has been very courteously copied for the writer and form the basis of this article.

Mr. Somerby's record of the baptism of a William at Over Stowey, June 5, 1594, was found to be correct, but unfortunately he overlooked this subsequent entry:

"1617, William Blake the sonne of Robert Blake was buried the ___ of Aprill."

As this record effectually disposes of this William, we are forced to look elsewhere for the emigrant.

On page 14 of Mr. Somerby's notes the statement is made that William the son of John 9 and brother of Robert above named died at Bishops Lydiard, leaving a widow Joan, but no children.

A close examination of the records discloses the following facts. By the will of John 9, his son William received lands at Bishops Lydiard, at Plainfield in Over Stowey, and at Padnoller in the parish of Spaxton. Now in the will of William of Bishops Lydiard, referred to by Mr. Somerby, date 13th June, 1618, and proved in September following by Joan his widow, he is described as a yeoman, and bequeaths three acres at Hillfarence which he bought, and his land at Risun, with sundry small gifts to friends. He mentions "Philipp Sully, my boye," but no children.

It will be noticed that this William held an entirely different social position from the Blakes of Over Stowey, and in the disposition of his property made no mention of the lands which John Blake 9 gave to his son William.

Furthermore, we have an abstract of a will of a William Blake of Riston, proved at Taunton, May, 1572, in which is a bequest to “my sonne Willyam.” Riston is near Taunton, and not more than seven or eight miles from Bishops Lydiard and is undoubtedly the same place described as Risun in the will of 1618.

From these facts it is quite reasonable to think that the William who died in 1618 at Bishops Lydiard without children was the son of William of Riston, but certainly not the son of John 9 of Over Stowey.

The records of Over Stowey furnish no evidence whatever in regard to John’s son, but the Taunton Manor Rolls show that a William Blake bought property at Pitminster, in 1586. The parish registers of Pitminster, which begin in the year 1544, are in a very good state of preservation, but there is not a single Blake entry (with the exception of a Mary Blake, daughter of Richard, who was buried in 1574) until the year 1588. When Grace a daughter of William was baptized. It is supposed that this William was the son of John 9, that he went to Pitminster to reside about the time of the purchase of the estate there in 1586, and there had the children named below. This theory was adopted by Mr. Jones in preparing his chart, and also by Mr. Blake whose investigations have been made independently of all previous labor in this direction, and it is hoped that this may soon be verified by record evidence.

The following records relating to this branch of the family appear upon the parish register at Pitminster:

Anno Domini
1588	Grace Blake, daughter of Willm Blake was baptized the 9 th day of February
1592	Eme Blake, daughter of William Blake was baptized the third day of December
1594	William Blake, son of William Blake was baptized the 10 th day of July
1597	John Blake son of William Blake was baptized the fifteenth day of June

Anno Domini
1600	Ane Blaak, daughter of William Blaak was baptized the sixteenth day of October
1603	Richard Blaak, son of William Blaak was baptized the seventeenth day of Aprill
1617	William Blake was married to Agnis Bond widow the 27 th day of September
1618	John Blake, sonne of William blake, and Ann Blake daughter of William Blake were baptis the __ day of August
1620	William Blake, sonne of William Blake was baptised the 6 th of September
1624	James Blake sonne of William Blake was baptised 27 th April

With this record from Pitminster before us, there cannot be a shadow of doubt that we have here the family of William of Dorchester [Massachusetts Bay Colony]. We know that he had a wife Agnes, and children John, Ann, William and James, and to make the case still stronger, the age of the father at death, and also of three of the children, Ann, William and James, corresponds with the date of the baptism at Pitminster.

No record has been found of the baptism of Edward, another son of William and Agnes, but it is supposed that he was born in England, as there is no evidence of the father being in this country previous to the year 1636, the statement that he came in the “Mary and John” in 1630 being without foundation.

Following the notes of Mr. Somerby, with the substitution of William 10 for Robert 10, the line of descent will stand as follows: Robert 1, Henry 2, William 3, Henry 4, Robert 5, William 6, William 7, Humphrey 8 (great-grandfather of the Admiral), John 9, William 10, William 11 of Dorchester.

This chart appears in the book which Francis Blake published and can be seen easier in the hypertext link which is at the beginning of the recitation of this book from Internet Archive.

It was this thin little book that I found in the NEHGS library in Boston in 2005 which alerted me to errors in Horatio Gates Somerby's work. As a child I had learned that the most ancient ancestor known to my grandfather and father in the Blake line had lived at Old House and a vague recollection that his name was Nicholas. I could remember my grandfather telling his ancestry but couldn't get past Joseph in my memory other than that there were a lot of Thomas and William and John forenames but Nicholas had stuck in my mind. I read in a published book about Nicholas of Old House being a brother to a Humphrey who later moved to Somerset and his descendant was named as the William Blake at Dorchester [Massachusetts Bay Colony]. From what my grandfather had said about his family and interestingly he did say that they had always lived in the Andover area, I could not really imagine that a brother of Nicholas at Old Hall had gone to Somerset but I was a newbie. This book by Francis Blake encouraged me to push deeper and I found the will of this Nicholas Blake and was on the path of the mystery which I have talked about earlier. We always need to think past the written word and look at the records and form our own opinions. Because in reality that is what they are, our opinions, and each generation will sift through the material and find more interesting items which can give an even greater prospect of finding the true path.

I am thinking at this point in time of looking at some of these Blake books on Internet Archive and perhaps publishing excerpts of them and in particular point out discrepancies or supports for a particular research finding that they may discuss.

2. Blake Surname Study – Progress

Still in the process of redoing the classification of the kits. Hopefully I will get back to this in the Fall.

3. Blake Autosomal Study at FT DNA (Family Finder)

Useful on an individual basis but I can not report on matching as that would interfere in the privacy of the individual members. In some cases these are large matches and in other cases relatively small but that is the way with the inheritance of autosomal DNA. With each generation chunks of autosomal DNA can either be broken into smaller units or passed as a large chunk relatively intact. It is a purely random event. Due to privacy concerns it is not possible to produce a chart of the members who do have matches with other members of the group but each member is able to check that for themselves in their account. What would be helpful is adding a family tree to your account thus making it much more possible to find matching autosomal DNA cousins in your research.

4. Andover, Hampshire, England, Parish Registers - Baptisms

Andover, Hampshire, England has often been said to be the “home of the Blakes” when I have been writing to people in Hampshire through the years. I would say that Calne, Wiltshire perhaps has a stronger hold on that particular title although there are a number of other areas in England where the Blake family has been for centuries. When I decided to transcribe the Parish Registers of Andover I was surprised to find that yes there are a number of Blake entries but there are far more Blake entries in Parish Registers in other parts of England as mentioned. In this issue, I will publish the baptisms for Blake in the Parish Registers. These records are taken from fiche which have scans of the original parish registers. The registers for baptisms begin in 1588 and have provided me with a lot of details on the Blake family in Andover in the late 1500s and into the 1600s/1700s. Eventually I hope to complete my project of transcribing these Parish Registers for St Marys Andover beyond the early to mid 1700s.

Baptismal Registers commenced in 1588 and I will start publishing these transcriptions for Andover.

5. Andover, Hampshire, England Parish Registers- marriages

I will publish the marriages for Blake in the Parish Registers of St Marys Andover. These records are taken from fiche which have scans of the original parish registers. The registers for marriages begin in 1587 and have provided me with a lot of details on the Blake family in Andover in the late 1500s and into the 1600s/1700s. Eventually I hope to complete my project of transcribing these Parish Registers for St Marys Andover beyond the early to mid 1700s.
