1. Progress on the Blake book looking at Andover principally

January did see me begin the book on the Blake Family of Andover, Hampshire, England. The Title Page and the picture on the third page in proved to be quite straightforward but it was my grandfather in my mind as I began. The Title Page may change as I have the Blake crest on this page at the moment. Probably I will not use it because the Blake Family at Andover is likely only descendant of the Calne Blake family in the female line but I will think about it for the two years ahead of me before publishing. The creative commons license page is setup but not yet created in terms of adding this book to my published book already. The next page is a picture of my Grandfather (Samuel George Blake) his wife (Ada Bessie Cotteril Rawlings Taylor) and their only child (Ernest Edward George Blake). All of them were born in England coming to Canada in 1913. It is a lovely picture and although I saw it as a child my memory of that is dim so was very excited when I found it in the material that my mother had given to my husband to write a 50th Wedding Anniversary book for them back in 1987 (Christmas time). Their anniversary was 20 May 1988 (50 years). My father is a child of perhaps four or five years of age but might be slightly older – I do not have a date on the picture. He was not a tall child and in this picture he does look somewhat taller than a short four year old might look I think. But for the moment it says 1908 as the date. Looking at the photographer he was working in Eastleigh in this time frame but still working later so determining actual date does not have any helpful events to date it. I gave great consideration to the picture because this was a book about the Blake family of Andover and indeed my line was at Upper Clatford when Joseph Blake (baptized and living at Andover) moved to Upper Clatford and married Joanna King and took over management of the farm of Thomas King her father. Not much detail on all of that except for the will of Thomas King where he only mentioned his son in law!

Moving on to the Table of Contents and it just flowed from my brain as I have been blogging on the book for a while. The Preface and Acknowledgements pages were set up with the Preface being written and the Acknowledgements waiting until I have completed the book. Into Chapter 1 – Long Before Surnames and I was into the discussion on this Blake family revealed to me by the yDNA of my brothers. As a child I often heard both my grandfather and father comment on the original inhabitants of the British Isles were suggested to be (they were more positive but I have been reading the literature so to speak (online)) descendant of one of the lost tribes of Israel. It was a fascinating chapter to write and will probably be one of the shortest chapters but I found it intriguing. Then into the y-DNA and all that it led me into. At that point I started to contemplate just what I would like to put into this book. I have a number of interesting items on the LeBlak family in the early history of England after the Norman Conquest and decided that it merited its own chapter although I believe, I am still working on this proof, that the Calne Blake family is descendant of the Le Blak family. I share the possibility that the Andover Blake family acquired their surname by marriage with a descendant of this Le Blake family whilst the Le Blak family were still living in Berkshire. Their movement into both Wiltshire and Hampshire occurred in the early part of the 1300s by records that are available. This Chapter is not yet complete although I am satisfied that it is flowing well and with a few documents to acquire may well move the thought forward that the LerBlak family of Rouen, Normany was indeed the ancestral line of the Blake family of Calne. But there are two years before I will be wholly satisfied with that thought. The next chapter looks at Andover itself and the early history and although longer than the lost tribes of Israel it too will be a shorter chapter. The Chapter I am now into is a new chapter I started and its placement may change but I felt the need to thoroughly display and discuss the Blake Pedigree Chart and the Blake Family Chart, the former created by the College of Arms for Daniel Blake in 1690 and the latter created likely in the 1800s by a descendant of the Somerset Blake family. I do offer a thought on whom this might be in the book.

I do plan on keeping the project up to date on this book over the next two years. We may see a slightly shorter newsletter though and of course I welcome any Blake family history if you wish to submit an article.

A new member of the y-DNA study still has me guessing where to place him. He seems to have ancient Irish lineage but not entirely sure of that. It may have to wait until the next newsletter to come up with more details. In the meantime I may create a new section for him. I will continue to work through the day on this new individual and will update if I make any decisions but for the moment the clock is ticking and it is afternoon in Europe!

3. Andover, Hampshire, England, Parish Registers - Baptisms

Andover, Hampshire, England has often been said to be the “home of the Blakes” when I have been writing to people in Hampshire through the years. I would say that Calne, Wiltshire perhaps has a stronger hold on that particular title although there are a number of other areas in England where the Blake family has been for centuries. When I decided to transcribe the Parish Registers of Andover I was surprised to find that yes there are a number of Blake entries but there are far more Blake entries in Parish Registers in other parts of England as mentioned. In this issue, I will publish the baptisms for Blake in the Parish Registers. These records are taken from fiche which have scans of the original parish registers. The registers for baptisms begin in 1588 and have provided me with a lot of details on the Blake family in Andover in the late 1500s and into the 1600s/1700s. Eventually I hope to complete my project of transcribing these Parish Registers for St Marys Andover beyond the early to mid 1700s.

Baptismal Registers commenced in 1588 and I will publish these transcriptions for Andover.

4. Andover, Hampshire, England Parish Registers - marriages

I will publish the marriages for Blake in the Parish Registers of St Marys Andover. These records are taken from fiche which have scans of the original parish registers. The registers for marriages begin in 1587 and have provided me with a lot of details on the Blake family in Andover in the late 1500s and into the 1600s/1700s. Eventually I hope to complete my project of transcribing these Parish Registers for St Marys Andover beyond the early to mid 1700s.

Marriage Registers commenced in 1587
