1. Blake Family of Andover, Hampshire, England

I have been busy the last three months since the last issue of the newsletter working on the Generational Chart for the Blake family of Andover. Using AI I have extracted all of the Blake family or Blake/Knight family matches from my Great Grandparent DNA file which I created and it is just under 5000 lines in Excel. AI quickly extracted all of the Blake or Blake/Knight matches because they are the only ones that interest me in the pursuit of “proof” that my traceback into the 1600s or earlier may help me to direct my will records and land records picking up the Blake lines back into the 1400s. Robert Blake left his will in 1522 and he was elderly. His son Richard left his will in 1522 as well but the probating is separated by time with Robert Blake passing probate before Richard and I am assuming that Robert died first. He does mention Richard in his will. Robert, at the moment is my starting point, but I do have a reference to a John Blake in the early 1300s in the Andover Hampshire area which interests me. I continue to work at that and hope to publish this book as planned in 2028.

Two people have joined in the last three months but they do not have the Blake surname so will place them into the Blake ancestry not in direct YDNA line unless they let me know that the yDNA is Blake. A few of the groups have independent researchers who manage them and likely you will have heard from them if you are matching them. I do not generally write to anyone as I am likely unable to aid you unless you are in one of their groups or in the group from which my Blake line descends. To me this is a collection period during which vast amounts of data are going to get organized and the methodology continues to develop as to just how we will organize this data. FT DNA does a great job with their current (and it is fairly new) y-DNA tree assigning haplogroups way into the past and up to the present to match the results that have been obtained by testing the samples. I can add very little to that other than try and organize the kits of people in this project into lines that suit the results of their data. This may not happen quickly as time needs to pass with each result whilst I look at the available data. I always welcome any comments from people on the assigning to a particular group. R-M269 is a particularly large group within the study and it has been broken down by an earlier researcher. I have somewhat retained the structure that Barrie Blake had because he often communicated with individuals within the group. But I do welcome any new information that might help to better refine some of these groups.

I continue with the grouping for the most part that was used by Barrie Blake although I have made a few changes in the headings.

3. Andover, Hampshire, England, Parish Registers - Baptisms

Andover, Hampshire, England has often been said to be the “home of the Blakes” when I have been writing to people in Hampshire through the years. I would say that Calne, Wiltshire perhaps has a stronger hold on that particular title (the Blake family at Andover acquired the surname Blake sometime in the late 1200s/early 1300s and I am still determining that) although there are a number of other areas in England where the Blake family has also been for centuries. When I decided to transcribe the Parish Registers of Andover I was surprised to find that yes there are a number of Blake entries but there are far more Blake entries in Parish Registers in other parts of England as mentioned. In this issue, I will publish the baptisms for Blake and others in the Parish Registers. These records are taken from fiche which have scans of the original parish registers. The registers for baptisms begin in 1588 and have provided me with a lot of details on the Blake family in Andover in the late 1500s and into the 1600s/1700s. Eventually I may complete my project of transcribing these Parish Registers for St Marys Andover beyond the early to mid 1700s (but the online database at Find My Past is excellent as it provides the scans which you can enlarge!).

Baptismal Registers commenced in 1588 and I will publish these transcriptions for Andover.

4. Andover, Hampshire, England Parish Registers burials

I will publish the burials for Blake and others in the Parish Registers of St Marys Andover. These records are taken from fiche which have scans of the original parish registers. Eventually perhaps I will complete my project of transcribing these Parish Registers for St Marys Andover beyond the early to mid 1700s.

Burial Registers commenced in 1586 (Old Style) (1586/87 New Style)
