<http://www.bridgwatermuseum.org.uk/>

The Blake Museum has given me permission to put these charts in the newsletter and will look at Blake Pedigree Chart 6 in this Newsletter. The chart on the right hand side is referring to the Blake family found in Dorset. This Blake family is well documented with a number of wills that I have already transcribed and can be found on my blog (<http://kippeeb.blogspot.com>) . A search on the Label “Dorset Wills” yields 12 Wills and they are primarily for this Blake line located in the Blandford area. The line of interest in this case can be located at the top right of this chart noting John Blake married Mary Wilkins 20 Jun 1648 at Pitminster, Somerset. John was the son of John Blake and Elizabeth (unknown). This John was baptized 19 Jun 1597 at Pitminster son of William baptized presumably at Over Stowey (Richard, his younger brother was baptized the 2nd of Jan 1562 but the baptism for William does not appear in the register which commences 1558 so presumably William was baptized before the beginning of the register but having his younger brother baptized at Over Stowey does give the impression that William probably was as well) and Anne Blake. There are other Blake baptisms at Over Stowey in this time period (as well as marriages and burials). Parents of William were John (the elder) and Johan Blake with this John being the son of Humphrey and Agnis

Blake. Neither of these marriages were available on the parish registers that I read through. Humphrey's second son was Robert Blake and the grandson of this Robert Blake was Admiral Robert Blake. This is a well documented line and finding a couple of proven descendants would yield the yDNA line of this Blake family of Bridgwater Somerset.

 Used with permission

22 May 1566 was baptized Robert Blake son of John Blake (younger brother to William Blake as well) at Over Stowey.

The Pitminster Somerset parish registers are on Ancestry and verifying the earlier records would be rather interesting. The records begin in 1542 and are available up to 1812 online at Ancestry as scans of the original parish registers.

William Blake and Anne (unknown) baptized the following children at Pitminster (they appear to be the only Blake family baptizing children at this time in Pitminster):

Grace Blake daughter of Will[ia]m Blake was baptized the 9th of February 1588/89

Eme Blake daughter of William Blake was baptized the 3rd of December 1592

William Black son of William Blake was baptized the 4th of July 1594

John Black son of William Blacke was baptized the 19th of June 1597

Anne Blaak daughter of William Blaak was baptized the 12th of October 1600

Richard Blaak son of William Blaak was baptized the 17th of April 1603

I could not find a marriage for William Blake and Anne. These are all the children that I found for this couple at Pitminster and indeed I did not find any other Blake baptisms up to 1610. However at 73 I am sure my eyes are not as strong as they were and will leave any such discoveries to the future. The B is quite distinctive though making it somewhat easier to find Blake (and its derivatives) in the Parish Registers.

Moving forward I wanted to discover if there were any baptisms for John Blake (baptized 1597) and his wife Elizabeth at Pitminster, Somerset (and I will also look at the marriage register when I locate it). There is now more than one Blake family baptizing children at Pitminster in the 1620s but I will keep to the line mentioned above. I could not find a marriage for John and Elizabeth.

Anne Blake was baptized daughter of John Blake the 7th of October 1624

William Blake son of John Blake was baptized the 24th of February 1626/7

John Blake son of John Blake was baptized the 1st of September 1629

John baptized 1629 married Mary Wilkins 20 Jun 1648 at Pitminster and baptisms for their children were found in the Pitminster Parish Records.

John Blake son of John Blake was baptized the 14th of August 1649

Malachi Blake son of John Blake was baptized the 24th of June 1651

Elizabeth Blake daughter of John Blake was baptized the 12th of March 1652/53

William Blake son of John Blake was baptized the 13th of February 1654/55

Sammuel Blake son of John Blake was baptized the 16th of December 1656

John Blake son of John Blake was baptized the 16th of February 1659

The Blake of interest in this family with regard to the Blake family found in Dorset was Malachi Blake. Malachi Blake was a dissenting minister (Presbyterian Minister at Blagdon) and was implicated in Monmouth's Rebellion fleeing to London following the defeat of 1st Duke of Monmouth in 1685 otherwise James Scott (illegitimate son of King Charles II). Malachi Blake fled to London in 1685 under disguise. He had married Mary Mico (year and location unknown) and they had baptized some of their children at Pitminster. I have not yet been able to learn very much about their other children who are named by others as: Sarah, Mary and William. William left a will and I will enter it into this newsletter below Malachi, his brother.

John Blake son of Mr Malachi Blake was baptized the 8th day of February 1684

Malachi Blake son of Malachi Blake was baptized the 16th day of August 1687

Although other children are noted in various trees as children of Malachi Blake and Mary Mico I did not find any more children listed as baptized at Pitminster.

Fortunately Malachi Blake left his will likely probated at Taunton but not available on the National Archives UK site. It is included in a set of documents collected by another dissenting minister. I will attempt to see if I can get a print of the will as it would prove to be quite interesting. I do, however, have the wills of several of his children including his son Malachi who was at Blandford. John, the other brother of Malachi, I have not learned very much about him yet.

Chart 6 (inserted above) does carry these lines down into the mid 1700s. I have not verified the details at this point in time. A project surely for the future. Anyone wanting to add anything to this writeup on Chart 6 is welcomed to do so.

- 2. Blake Surname Study – Progress: One Name Blake Study at the Guild of One-name Studies was originally undertaken by another researcher. In 2011, I became the researcher for the Blake-one-name Study at the Guild. There was already a pre-existing yDNA project run by Bill Bleak and he continues as the main administrator of the project. As can be seen below only 16 members of the study have completed a Big Y (SNPs testing for deep clade determination) making it virtually impossible to do more than has been done with some of the groups.

Project Statistics

Total Members	190

The task of managing these groups is large and I will gradually work away at converting them to the new standard of placing individuals by their deep haplogroup testing. I would recommend that all members join the relevant haplogroup project to learn more about your haplogroup.

This has changed very little in the past three months. I am finding it difficult to work with the R1b groups. I do not like to upset the original classification but will continue to study how I could modify these groupings. Any suggestions greatly welcomed.

3. Blake autosomal DNA Study at FT DNA (Family Finder)

In some cases these are large matches and in other cases relatively small but that is the way with the inheritance of autosomal DNA. With each generation chunks of autosomal DNA can either be broken into smaller units or passed as a large chunk relatively intact. It is a purely random event. Due to privacy concerns it is not possible to produce a chart of the members who do have matches with other members of the group but each member is able to check that for themselves in their account. What would be helpful is adding a family tree to your account thus making it much more possible to find matching autosomal DNA cousins in your research.

4. Andover, Hampshire, England Parish Registers (Baptisms – set 6)

Andover, Hampshire, England has often been said to be the “home of the Blakes” when I have been writing to people in Hampshire through the years. I would say that Calne, Wiltshire perhaps has a stronger hold on that particular title although there are a number of other areas in England where the Blake family has been for centuries. When I decided to transcribe the Parish Registers of Andover I was surprised to find that yes there are a number of Blake entries but there are far more Blake entries in Parish Registers in other parts of England as mentioned. In this issue, I will publish the baptisms for Blake in the Parish Registers. These records are taken from fiche which have scans of the original parish registers. The registers for baptisms begin in 1588 and have provided me with a lot of details on the Blake family in Andover in the late 1500s and into the 1600s/1700s. Eventually I hope to complete my project of transcribing these Parish Registers for St Marys Andover beyond the early to mid 1700s.

Baptismal Registers commenced in 1588 and I will start publishing these transcriptions for Andover.
