1. Guild of one-name Studies Posting Challenge

A ten post Challenge has been issued to Guild members and I have accepted the Challenge. One is to produce ten blogs in the next twelve weeks on our particular studies. I opted to do my BLAKE study and will look eventually at the BLAKE family research that I have put together in south-west England (namely Cornwall with some Devon perhaps). In 2015 and 2016 I spent some time extracting all of the Blake entries from the Online Parish Clerks Cornwall site. I built trees from all of this information and the Legacy file has 4848 individuals and 1540 families. At some point towards the end of all this research I had a couple of comments from people with regard to publishing this material which I had suggested linked the Blake family in the Bodmin area to a Jean Blake who came from Breton prior to 1525. Living in Canada, we are definitely a land of immigrants. The First Nations arrived here about 13,000 years ago and the Inuit perhaps 5,000 years ago and they represent about 5% of the present day Canadian population. When Metis are added it could be as high as 10% I could not find present day statistics. But that means; the other 90% of us came here from somewhere else. The world is a constantly moving evolving population and who knows what the world will be like 100 or a 1000 years from now. Hopefully over the next 10 years we will all get our ducks in line and decrease/prevent any more global warming. Our descendants deserve to have the same kind of world full of plants, fish, birds and animals etc. (and better since one always wants to do better for one's children) that we inherited. But back to the topic at hand, I decided with the comments that I should set aside the Cornwall research to another time; another era of thought and I think that perhaps that time has arrived. I will first blog about the 1330-1550 Immigrants Database (<https://www.englishimmigrants.com/>) which was an absolute eye opener with regard to the BLAKE family in the British Isles when I first discovered it. The research was a joint effort funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council, research thanks to the Humanities Research Institute, University of Sheffield, and the University of York with assistance from HRI Digital and the National Archives of the United Kingdom. The project itself was funded between February 2012 and 2015 as mentioned by the Arts and Humanities Research Council.

The posts will be published on my blog (<https://kippeeb.blogspot.com/>) and I expect to have the first one up on the 2nd of January 2020. The set of ten posts will form the central part of the next issue of the Blake Newsletter (1st of April 2020).

2. Blake Pedigree Chart – Blake Museum at Bridgwater, Somerset and these charts are on their website:

<http://www.bridgwatermuseum.org.uk/>

The Blake Museum has given me permission to put these charts in the newsletter and will look at Blake Pedigree Chart 8 in this Newsletter. This chart is referring to the Blake family found in Wiltshire partially. This Blake family descendant of the marriage of Robert Blake and Mary Baynard is well documented with a number of wills that I have already transcribed and can be found on my blog (<http://kippeeb.blogspot.com>). I will insert and refer to several of them in this section.

Perhaps what makes this story most interesting is two Blake siblings married two Baynard siblings. It has left me with the thought that the individual who produced this Chart used the Blake Pedigree Chart produced by the College of Arms in 1690 for the Blake family at Calne/Pinhills/Quemberford, Wiltshire. Robert Baynard married Anne Blake and Roger Blake married Mary Baynard and the parents of the two Baynard siblings were Philip Baynard and Jane Stuckley. The parents of the Blake siblings were Robert Blake and Margaret Inglefield.

This is a cropped portion of one of the eight images produced by the Swindon and Wiltshire Record office which I purchased about 10 years ago now of the Blake Pedigree Chart produced by the College of Arms in 1690. Robert Blake married to Margaret Inglefield was the son of Robert Blake and Avice Wallop.

At this point, British History Online has some helpful information about the Blake family at Calne: <https://www.british-history.ac.uk/vch/wilts/vol17>

“Calne. Manors and other Estates:

“Pinhills was reputed a manor in 1504, when it was held at his death by John Blake. Although John's heirs were his grandson Richard Dauntsey and his daughter Joan Wroughton, Pinhills apparently passed to his brother Robert Blake (d. 1515) and in the direct line to Roger (d. 1557), Thomas (fn. 64) (d. by 1599), Roger, Henry (will proved 1653), and Henry Blake (d. 1660), who devised it to his grandson Henry Blake (fn. 65) (d. 1731). Henry held Pinhills in 1698, (fn. 66) apparently not in 1728, when it was 157 a. (fn. 67)

Calne. Economic history:

It is always handy when actual documents exist which provide a timeline and in this case a Robert Blake owned a fulling mill in Quemerford (Quemberford) and that this Robert Blake died in 1515 and that the record was an Inquest into the death of Robert

Blake held in 1516. The description states that Blake died 11 Dec 1515 and that his son Roger is his nearest heir and is 18 years and more old. (Public Record Office (now National Archives (Kew)), C 142/31, no. 53) This would appear to be referring to the Robert Blake married to Margaret Inglefield and Roger his son married to Mary Baynard. In 1560 Robert's grandson Thomas Blake conveyed the estate which included the fulling mill to Henry Chivers. (Public Record Office, CP 25/2/239/2 and 3 Eliz. 1 Mich.: W.R.O, 649/2, view 5 Oct 1594) The Thomas Blake mentioned was the eldest son of Roger Blake and Mary Baynard. I was not able to locate the will for Henry Blake (proven 1653). It is not with the Wiltshire Wills but there is a will for a Henry Blake in Gloucestershire (Tetbury) but dated 1663.

Unfortunately Roger only names his eldest son Thomas, his grandson Roger and his daughter Mary along with his wife Mary in this will. He actually does mention his son in laws Henry Bull (married to Sybell) and Anthony Goddard (married to Joan) but not that they are his sons in law. Chart 8 lists the children of Roger Blake and Mary Baynard as James married to Edith Ivy, Robert married to Alice Smyth, John married to Joan/Jane Clark, Sybill married to Henry Bull, Joan married to Anthony Goddard and Mary married to Edward Langridge. Two of these children's descendants are also noted on Chart 8.

The children of Thomas Blake and Edith Ivy are named Roger married to Wrxed Gastrell, Michael, Giles, Francis and Robert. The children of Robert Blake and Alice Smyth are named Roger, Anthony, Joan and Mary.

The children of Roger married to Wrxed Gastrell are Henry, Roger (b c 1593), Elizabeth married to ___ Powell and Frances married to Philip Bull. The child of Henry married to Frances Pigot was Joan (b c 1611) and the children of Henry married to Abigail Stringer were Henry (b c 1617), Roger (b c 1618), Ambrose, and Abigail (b c 1620) married to William Parry and they had a daughter Lettice Blake Parry. The dates listed above were taken from the Blake Pedigree Chart prepared by the College of Arms in 1690.

Trying to learn more about the descendants of Roger Blake and Mary Barnard did not prove to be an easy task. However, Mary Blake also left a will dated 28 Nov 1569. I had not yet transcribed the probate but felt it would add greatly to this story if I did do so and hence the delay in publication. In her will Mary mentions her husband Roger Blake, her son Thomas, her son Robert, her daughter Jone Goddarde and her son in law Anthony Goddarde, her daughter Sibill Bull and her son in law Henrie Bull.

3. Queries from Study Members

- a. FTDNA lists my final SNP as YP-5320, but YFull lists me as YP-943, upstream from YP-5320. My earliest Blake ancestor I can trace is John Blake (c. 1590-1650) who I believe was born in Surrey, England. L-664 as a group is West Germanic, probably arriving in the Isles with the Angles, Saxons, Jutes, and Frisians, or later with the Normans. Can you tell me why my name is included in the East Anglia group? My kit no. is [REDACTED]. At the eighth allele, DYS388, my reading is "10"...The rest of the kits show a reading of "12", a much more common reading at that allele. I am part of the tiny northwestern European L-664 group. I believe the different allele readings preclude our having a common ancestor.

Response: I have created a new group L-664. Trying to decide the title of this group and any assistance greatly appreciated.

- b. Thank you for the recent Blake newsletter. In your listing of the members of the Blake groups that have done some level of DNA testing you have two categories of Irish Blake: Galway Blakes, and descendants of Sir Thomas Blake. I am an Irish Blake and do not belong to either of these groups. Alex Williamson shows me in a distinct category, along with a testee by the name of Shepherd. We are part of the group called Clan Colla, which traces its ancestry back to the 7th century in Ireland. Perhaps future records could include this information.

Response: I have created a new group: Irish Ancestry R-BY23867 - Clan Colla

*As I created these two new groups I am realizing that I need to change the labelling of all the groups and will work away at that. Any suggestions greatly appreciated. It is true that I could continue learning all of this new material on Y DNA but my interests are leading me elsewhere and this is a project that I would hand on to others in terms of the R haplogroup in particular. I will continue working on the I-L161 and I-L460 haplogroups myself, Bill Bleak manages the I-M253 and Susan Osborne manages the I-M223 group. The Galway group is managed by a member of that group.

- 4. Blake Surname Study – Progress: One Name Blake Study at the Guild of One-name Studies was originally undertaken by another researcher. In 2011, I became the researcher for the Blake-one-name Study at the Guild. There was already a pre-existing yDNA project run by Bill Bleak and he continues as the main administrator of the project. As can be seen below 23 members of the study have completed a Big Y (SNPs testing for deep clade determination) making it virtually impossible to do more than has been done with some of the groups.

The task of managing these groups is large and I will gradually work away at converting them to the new standard of placing individuals by their deep haplogroup testing. I have not made any progress since the last report. If anyone is willing to look at the R1b groups and come up with a better display I would greatly appreciate it. I would recommend that all members join the relevant haplogroup project to learn more about your haplogroup. Surprisingly we have not grown at all since the last newsletter. I think getting more order into the R1b kits is essential but I have no familiarity with some of these lines. Still hoping for someone to volunteer to look at these groups.

5. Blake autosomal DNA Study at FT DNA (Family Finder)

In some cases these are large matches and in other cases relatively small but that is the way with the inheritance of autosomal DNA. With each generation chunks of autosomal DNA can either be broken into smaller units or passed as a large chunk relatively intact. It is a purely random event. Due to privacy concerns it is not possible to produce a chart of the members who do have matches with other members of the group but each member is able to check that for themselves in their account. What would be helpful is adding a family tree to your account thus making it much more possible to find matching autosomal DNA cousins in your research.

6. Andover, Hampshire, England Parish Registers (Baptisms – set 8)

Andover, Hampshire, England has often been said to be the “home of the Blakes” when I have been writing to people in Hampshire through the years. I would say that Calne, Wiltshire perhaps has a stronger hold on that particular title although there are a number of other areas in England where the Blake family has been for centuries. When I decided to transcribe the Parish Registers of Andover I was surprised to find that yes there are a number of Blake entries but there are far more Blake entries in Parish Registers in other parts of England as mentioned. In this issue, I will publish the baptisms for Blake in the Parish Registers. These records are taken from fiche which have scans of the original parish registers. The registers for baptisms begin in 1588 and have provided me with a lot of details on the Blake family in Andover in the late 1500s and into the 1600s/1700s. Eventually I hope to complete my project of transcribing these Parish Registers for St Marys Andover beyond the early to mid 1700s.

Baptismal Registers commenced in 1588 and I will start publishing these transcriptions for Andover.
