- 1. Pincombe Charts, original One-Name Study at the Guild of One-Name Studies

The charts that I have been putting into the journal originally created by Galen Pinkham and Richard Pinkham are not legible. I have decided that I will put them up on my server and share them with an hypertext link in the journal with the uploaded image. However, I will still insert the image in this issue as before. I will go back into the earlier issues and make this change in the newsletters.

The chart that will be inserted in this journal is labelled Beaford - Roborough – Great Torrington. The family at the top of this chart is Steven Pencome b circa 1596 and married 10 Nov 1621 at St Giles in the Wood to Edith Blagdon. The chart has four sons for this couple: Matthew Pinkcombe (baptized 23 Jan 1624 could not verify on Find My Past) married Constance Goodwine 17 Apr 1649 at Dolton and was buried 2 Sep 1694 at Landkey; Thomas Pencom b circa 1625 (possibly the Thomas Pincombe buried 19 Jan 1663 at Beaford), John Pincombe b circa 1628 and Henry Pincombe b circa 1629.

These tables represent many years of work at the record offices and Richard Pinkham was a physician and able to make contact with some of the Pincombe families living in Devon. The names seen on these charts usually in the top corners are individuals who provided information for that particular chart.

Elizabeth Pincombe of Exeter, widow, does not give many clues in her will. She does not mention any children. The Burial of Elizabeth Pincombe at St Leonard in Exeter the 19 Sep 1819 seems to fit in with this will and she was listed as 85 years of age so born circa 1734. There are three Pincombe males in Exeter in this time period – Amos, John and Samuel.

Amos was baptized 1 Jan 1727 at Holy Trinity, Exeter son of Amos and Eliz.

Samuel was baptized 8 Feb 1731 at St Thomas Exeter son of John.

There is a marriage for John Pincombe 26 Mar 1789 at Exeter to Catherine Kent.

There is a marriage for Samuel Pincombe 15 Apr 1764 at Holy Trinity Exeter to Elizabeth Bidwell.

There was a will for a Samuel Pincombe probated in 1802 at St Leonard Exeter. He was a fuller. His executor was Elizabeth Pincombe. His will was destroyed in the bombing of the Record Office during World War II.

It would thus appear that Samuel (husband of the testator Elizabeth (Bidwell) Pincombe) was the son of John Pincombe.

The Pincombe Chart for Exeter is helpful looking at this family. John Pincombe married twice. His first wife was Joan Sanders and they married 28 Mar 1722 at St Peter Exeter. His second marriage was to Elinor Banks and they married 22 Aug 1727 at St Thomas Exeter. There are three children listed for the second marriage: Elizabeth baptized 13 Oct 1728, Samuel baptized 8 Feb 1731 and Sarah baptized 29 May 1740. This Samuel is listed as married to Elizabeth Bidwell 15 May 1764 at Holy Trinity and no children are listed for this couple. John is not listed as the child of any of the other families on the chart.

3. Autosomal DNA Study

The entire Pincombe DNA study at FT DNA includes 18 members of whom 12 have taken the Family Finder Test. At a later date I will comment on the Y-DNA Study, I am still working on that particular discussion. Of the eleven people who have tested their autosomal DNA, three of them are closely related to me and another two are related to me. Because of these results I am able to phase my grandparent's DNA yielding a look at my grandfather Pincombe who died twenty years before I was born. It is worthwhile if you are keen to understand your unknown matches in Family Finder to test your siblings and known cousins. It is not possible to publish any information on this study without breaking privacy conventions of FT DNA.
