1. Pincombe Charts, original One-Name Study at the Guild of One-Name Studies

These Pincombe Charts were created by the two researchers in the original One-name-study at the Guild of one-name-studies. I reprint them with the thought in mind that others could add to the knowledge of these charts. I have reworked some of them and will publish that information when complete. I am publishing Chart 13 – Stepney-Holborn-Hendeon-Croydon in this issue. This is another Chart that I have done some work on plus I have information from a Pincombe descendant who corresponded with one of the original researchers Dr Richard Pinkham. He shared all of his correspondence with me including anything that he submitted. Any comments, corrections, additions to this chart known by any of my readers is much appreciated. I am looking forward now to updating this information to pass on to another researcher.

Ideally, I will use the information which I received from Richard Phillips to discuss this chart. It is interesting that the Will of William Pincombe discussed below should coincide with Chart 13. It was unintentional on my part. Richard Phillips' ancestor was Arthur Pincombe baptized 26 Dec 1761 at Roborough by Torrington and son of Arthur Pincombe and Agnes Heard who themselves were married 19 Jun 1750 at Roborough by Torrington. This Arthur Pincombe was baptized 28 Aug 1727 at Roborough by Torrington the son of John Pincombe and Mary Peardon (married 28 Oct 1726 at Roborough by Torrington. All dates were verified with the original images on Find My Past. As you read through the will below and the comments you will see the relationship between these two lines.

Richard Phillips sent me a CD with 131 files; all of his Pincombe-Pinkham research. I did extract some material at the time but publishing these charts has brought me back to these files once again. There was one particular letter that I had forgotten and it was between Richard Pinkham MD and Richard Phillips and Richard Pinkham mentions his ancestry in this particular letter. I never corresponded with Richard Pinkham. I discovered reading these letters that his eyesight was failing him in the early 1990s and by the time I arrived on the scene it was already fourteen years later and I think he was in his late 80s in the early 1990s. But Richard identified his 4x great grandfather as John Pincomb (baptized 10 Mar 1728) and a brother to Arthur Pincombe who was baptized 28 Aug 1727. Looking at Chart 4, Arthur and John were the sons of John Pincombe and Mary Peardon who had married 28 Oct 1726 at Roborough. Richard then mentioned his great grandfather was Richard Pincombe (1831-1913) (baptized 20 Mar 1831 at Roborough son of William and Ann Pincombe) and married to Maria Pyke 31 Mar 1861 at Torrington. Chart 4 traces that particular Richard back to his parents William Pincombe and Ann Winson who married 13 Oct 1830 at Roborough. All of these dates in the paragraph above this line were verified on Find My Past. William was baptized 25 Dec 1799 son of George Pincombe and Grace Page who were married 7 Nov 1790 at Roborough. These dates in the preceding sentence were repeated on Ancestry but no images available. George was baptized 24 Feb 1766 at Roborough and was the son of John Pincombe (baptized 10 Mar 1728) and Elizabeth married circa 1760 at Roborough. I was not able to verify this information other than finding it as entries on Family Search. Richard Pinkham MD also mentions that it was his grandfather William (1861-1938) (baptized 25 Dec 1861 at Great Torrington son of Richard Pincombe and Maria Pyke) who changed the spelling of his name to Pinkham. These two men shared their 5x great grandparents making them sixth cousins. I have not yet found mention of that.

At a later date I will redraw these charts with all the new information that I have acquired and they will be electronic. It is perhaps a challenge that I should take on with the Pincombe project and will consider what other elements I want to pass on to another researcher when I step down. As well I will give copies to both the Guild of one-name Studies and the Society of Genealogists. I continue as a member of both groups.

These tables represent many years of work at the record offices by the two original Pincombe-Pinkham family researchers and Richard Pinkham was a physician and able to make contact with some of the Pincombe families living in Devon. The names seen on these charts usually in the top corners are individuals who provided information for that particular chart. In the case of charts from the United States, Galen Pinkham has contributed a great deal of information to the descendants of the Pincombe/Pinkham family and this information can be found on the charts which he produced. I do remind other researchers that there are discrepancies in these charts and I would appreciate knowing of any that you may find so that eventually a corrected chart will be published.

First a little background on Alverdiscott (also known as Alscott) is a village/parish five miles (eight kilometres) SE of Bideford. The Parish Registers commenced in 1602 for baptisms and marriages and in 1612 for burials. William Pincombe was buried the 14th of July 1811 at Beaford. Discovering his parentage did not prove to be an easy task. There are a number of William Pincombe baptisms in this particular area within a reasonable time frame. The loss of the many wills in the bombing of the Exeter Record Office has made it much more difficult to trace some of these lines. Plus this particular William does not appear to be on the Charts produced by the earlier study. Trying to follow the name of the tenement did not lead to any new information; it is not a listed British Building.

Using the excellent Genuki webpages for Devon (I have made some contributions there), I continued hunting for information on the Pincombe family in the Beaford area.

There was a Philip Pincombe at Alverdiscott who signed the Devon and Exeter Oath Rolls in 1723. At Beaford, Stephen Pincombe of Swimbridge, Hugh Pincombe of Landkey, Thomas Pincombe of Bishop's Nympton and William Pincombe of Bishop's Nympton signed the same Oath Roll. Thomas and Hugh signed with the letter "P" and William also made a mark with Stephen signing his name (QS17/2/2/13 (1)). John Pincombe of Langtree signed (QS17/2/2/9a (16)). In total there were four documents signed at Beaford with just two of them including the surname Pincombe or Pincomb.

The Freeholders Index (1711-1799) for Alverdiscott had nine documents and no members of the Pincombe/Pincomb/Pinkham family listed. The Freeholders Index for Beaford had eight documents and no members of the Pincombe/Pincomb/Pinkham family listed but at Langtree a Pinkcombe, yeoman listed and one could surmise from the list above this would likely be John Pincombe of Langtree (QS17/2/2/9a (16)).

The Devon Wills Index has an Anthony Pincombe (probate 1715) at Beaford. Arthur Pincombe is also listed with a probate year of 1728 at Beaford. Mary Pincombe in 1729 at Beaford. William Pincombe in 1812 at Beaford. A little luck perhaps with that as there is a marriage between William Pincombe and Sarah Alford at Beaford the 29th July 1788. The residence for the groom is given as Roborough and for the bride as Beafford.

Using this information and Find My Past I will now attempt to discover more about the testator William Pincombe as well as Anthony, Arthur and Mary Pincombe. Since William Pincombe, the testator, has a married daughter in 1811 then William and Sarah were perhaps married in the 1780s-early 1790s or earlier.

William Pincombe, the testator, identifies his wife Sarah, his daughters Mary How (married to Thomas How) and Sarah, and his sons Richard, William and John.

Baptisms at Beaford:

Mary Pincombe baptized 2 Oct 1788 daughter of William and Sarah Pincombe

Sarah Pencombe baptized 13 Jan 1793 daughter of William and Sarah Pencombe

John Pincombe baptized 22 Jan 1804 son of William and Sarah Pincombe

Thomas Pincombe baptized 8 Apr 1806 son of William and Sarah Pincombe; buried 15 Apr 1808 (not stated as a child but priest seemed to reference only infants and Thomas would have been 2 years of age)

Baptisms at Roborough:

Richard Budd Pincombe baptized 29 Dec 1790 son of William and Sarah Pincombe

I did not locate a baptism for William Pincombe the other son mentioned in the will. Remembering that in the marriage registration it was stated that the groom was of Roborough it is perhaps not surprising that the eldest son could be baptized there. But the middle name of Budd is a surprise. But I did note that there was a Richard Burd buried at Beaford in 1800.

Looking once again at the Pincombe charts created by the earlier researchers, There is a William Pincombe baptized 20 Jun 1756 (correct on Chart 4 but incorrect on Chart 5) who married Sarah (this William being of Roborough (the baptism can be located on Find My Past) and son of Mary Pincombe baptized 5 October 1731 (verified on Find My Past) daughter of John Pincombe (baptized 21 Jul 1700) and married to Mary Peardon 26 Oct 1726 at Roborough (does not agree with Chart but found on Find My Past)). No children are listed on Chart 5 (Beaford-Roborough-Ramsgate published in Volume 3, Issue 3 of the Pincombe-Pinkham Newsletter)) for William and Sarah. The parents of John Pincombe married to Mary Peardon were Arthur Pincombe married to Mary Stabledon 31 Jul 1686 at Beaford (incorrect on chart (found on Find My Past)). An Arthur Pincombe was listed on the Devon Genuki Wills Index in 1728 at Beaford.

I leave it with the reader to decide if this is a reasonable line of descent.
