1. Who was John Pincombe married to Johanne Blackmoore at Bishops Nympton?

This John Pincombe is very interesting. His descendants form the bulk of the registrations that follow in the parish registers of Bishops Nympton up to the present day. I have his baptism 19 Jan 1622 at Bishops Nympton son of William Pyncomb and his wife Wilmote. There are no other details in the parish register. William Pyncomb and his wife Wilmote appear to have just one other child William who was buried 8 Jan 1654 at Bishops Nympton (and he is shown with his first child's baptism with his wife Mary 7 Apr 1645 at Bishops Nympton; the child was named Wilmote). Roughly he was likely born around the 1620s. The Parish Registers do not show any baptisms between 1619 and 1622.

The Protestation Returns of 1641/42 for Bishops Nympton list four Pincombe members:

John Pincombe senior (John baptized 9 Dec 1604 son of Richard / Frances Pincomb (2nd wife) John Pincombe junior (John baptized 19 Jan 1622 son of Richard / Anne Pincomb (1st wife) William Pincombe senior (William baptized 23 Mar 1599 son of Richard / Anne Pincomb (1st wife) William Pincombe junior (William (baptism missing (1st child baptized 1645)) son of William senior and Wilmote Pincombe

You had to be over the age of 18 to sign the Protestation Return and these four men were the only adults (over 18) in the Parish Register at that time.

A number of charts (discussed in earlier issues of the Pincombe-Pinkham Newsletter) were produced and included one for the Pincombe family at Bishops Nympton. Most of the charts did have members of the family giving information at the time the chart were produced but not the one for Bishops Nympton unfortunately. One of my cousins investigating her ancestor George Pincombe who had gone to Australia asked the College of Arms about the Pincombe family at Bishops Nympton and was told that the Pincombe family at Bishops Nympton had certainly descended from John Pincombe and Johane Blackmore and working down through the Registers the descendants of John and Johane Pincombe appear to dominate the Pincombe registrations in the parish registers. I have transcribed the entire set of registers for Bishops Nympton (over 900 pages of text in word) and it is my opinion as well that the Pincombe records appear to be descendant of this couple John and Johane Pincombe. The early records are harder to read but having now transcribed them I am confident to say that John Pincombe who married Johane Blackmore was the son of William and Wilmote Pincombe and that William was the oldest son of Richard Pincombe. The first Pincombe in the Parish Registers at Bishops Nympton is the baptism of William Pincombe son of Richard and Anne Pincombe 23 Mar 1599. The baptisms at Bishops Nympton commence in 1556.

To help with the missing registers between 1665 and 1690 there is an interesting document known as: Parish Return towards the Rebuilding of St Paul's Cathedral for Bishops Nympton, Devon dated 1678. I transcribed this document and listed there is a Richard Pincomb, Emott Pincomb and John Pincomb. Emott Pincombe is likely the daughter of John (John Pincombe senior on the Protestation Returns) and Elizabeth (Graddon) Pincombe (both parents were buried at Bishops Nympton; John 8 Oct 1681 and Elizabeth 13 Sep 1671). Since Emott and John are not listed one after the other on the form, I feel safe in thinking that this John Pincombe is the John married to Johane Blackmore. Richard Pincombe, I am not able to determine who he is. Richard the father of William grandfather to John Pincombe married to Johane Blackmore was buried 31 Jan 1648 at Bishops Nympton. Richard does not appear to be used again in this Pincombe family at Bishops Nympton until 1815 and 1816. Possibly the money was given in his name which is a thought that just occurred to me.

Reading British History Online I did find an interesting item that the vicarage was "lawfully vacant" in 1681 which explains no baptisms being recorded since it was the time of the Commonwealth when births were recorded in the village records rather than the Church Registers in this time period.

This map of Bishops Nympton is very similar to the actual layout of the area when we visited in 2008. Bishops Nympton lies below the main road which is the solid grey line through the middle of this picture running east to west. We left the main road coming back from Barnstaple at South Molton and took the back road into Bishops Nympton and hence passing Westwood, Eastwood and Park where my 3x great grandfather Robert Pincombe was living. Cross was where his older brother John Pincombe lived just north of Eastwood. The house at Park where they lived (Robert and Elizabeth (Rowcliffe) Pincombe with their eight children) is still there but considerably changed according to the writeup on Park.

What I do not know for sure is where this John Pincombe and his wife Johane Blackmore lived. Robert was the third son so property was perhaps acquired for him. Definitely Cross was in the family for a while. As you come down into Bishops Nympton, it does sort of feel like you are driving down into the village, the road turns sharply as can be seen on the map above and then the main street of Bishops Nympton has a lot of houses very close together.

John Pincombe and Johane Blackmore had six children all baptized at Bishops Nympton:

William Pincombe baptized 18 Oct 1656

Johan Pincombe, twin, baptized 31 May 1658

Wilmote Pincombe, twin, baptized 31 May 1658

John Pincombe (baptism missing but his burial gives his age as 13 on 13 Dec 1673)

Thomas Pincombe baptized 1 Apr 1662

Hugh Pincombe baptized 2 Nov 1664

As I worked my way through the 1600s I realize that I have loose ends in this time period. I do not know what happened with one Pincombe family at Bishops Nympton. William Pincombe born circa 1620 (son of William and Wilmote Pincombe) died young in 1654 leaving five young children. I do not find those children in the Parish Register for Bishops Nympton after their baptisms. William was buried 8 Jan 1654/5 at Bishops Nympton and his wife Mary was buried 25 Dec 1654 also in Bishops Nympton. Their five children: Wilmote (1645), William (1646), John (1649-1688), Mary (1651) and Katerin (1653) were all baptized at Bishops Nympton Parish Church.

No information for Wilmote Pincombe.

There is a burial for a William Pincombe at Swimbridge 1st February 1671/2 and a will for a William Pincombe 1671 in Swimbridge (if him he would be 25 years of age, Administrator appointed).

There is a burial for a John Pincombe 2 July 1688 at Swimbridge and a will for a John Pincombe 1689 at Swimbridge (Administrator appointed).

Mary Pincombe perhaps married Hugh Symonds 9 Nov 1673 at Swimbridge Parish Church.

Katherin Pincombe perhaps married William Mules 9 July 1677 at Swimbridge Parish Church.

The youngest son, Hugh Pincombe, of John Pincombe (married to Johane Blackmore and brother to William Pincombe (buried 8 Jan 1654/5)) lived at Landkey which is about 2 km from Swimbridge. Possibly there was a property there that the Pincombe family occupied and which passed to John after the death of his nephew John in 1688. Most of the property was copyhold and I noticed with my 3x great grandfather Robert Pincombe's will that copyhold property passed to his brothers rather than his sons.

Hugh Pincombe married Sara Lang according to an online tree. I did search the parish registers for Swimbridge and Landkey but did not find the marriage for Hugh Pincombe. I also checked Family Search but no luck there either.
