- 1. Discussion: The Pencombe family in the 1500s in Devon

Continuing to look at the Pencombe-Pincombe-Pinkham family in Devon in the 1500s has proven to be a very interesting several weeks. Another researcher, Carlos Pinkham, has provided me with 28 images that he collected on the Pencombe/Pincombe/Pinkham family in Devon and Cornwall from the 1500s to the 1800s (there is one record in the 1900s). I tried a couple of ways to utilize the information and finally decided to input the material into an excel file and that left me with the ability to sort them at will on any of the columns. In my first look at the pages I tried several different ways to look at them with regard to my own information; for the most part all of the entries in the 1500s I do have but I have not produced a chart in Excel with all of those entries so it was an excellent opportunity to do so. It is possible for me to do a global search in Find My Past for Pincombe and its derivatives but doing just Pencombe, Pinkham and Pincombe gives me nearly 50,000 entries and that is not doable in a time frame that will work for me. Although I have been a member of Find My Past for a very long time so all of the records that I have looked at previously are marked which is a bonus but 50,000 is to many so having this look at data by another family researcher is excellent. I will discuss the 1500s principally in this issue of the Newsletter. In the last Newsletter the Devon Lay Subsidies were examined in detail and a draft 1st-3rd generation chart produced which is basically unaltered by any work that I will be writing up in this newsletter.

I did have a rather startling thought at some point in the past couple of weeks where I came to the possible conclusion that the one member of this family that seemed an outlier could really be a fifth child of the likely John Pencombe who arrived at North Molton with John la Zouche, 7th Baron Zouche, 8th Baron St Maur (1459 – 1526) circa late 1480s (early in the reign of Henry VII (1485-1509)). The La Zouche family was historically at North Molton (1100s on) and following the Battle of Bosworth Field John la Zouche etc. suffered attainder for supporting Richard III. Due to his rather good connections (his mother was a half sister to the mother of Henry VII) he was eventually pardoned and his estates partially restored to him which included North Molton.

The Pencombe etc. family in these first three generations was located in the North/South Molton area as mentioned in the last issue where a family tree was constructed of the first three generations and the 1544-45 Devon Lay Subsidy was referred to demonstrating movement out from the North Molton area. The outlier in the 1544-45 Devon Lay Subsidy is Philip Pynkeham and I have postulated a possible link in the paragraph preceding. The Richard at Bideford and King's Nympton, is, I believe a son of Thomas (Richard3, Thomas2, John1)

Surname	Forename (descent)	Parish	Year	Property
Pyncombe	Christopher (Christopher3,John2,John1)	South Molton	1544	10
Pyncome	John (John2,John1)	South Molton	1544	13
Pynkeham	Philip (possibly Philip2,John1)	Tawstocke	1544	8
Pencombe	Richard (Richard3, Thomas2, John1)	Bideford	1544	9
Pencombe	Thomas (Thomas2, John1)	East Buckland	1544	9
Pencombe	Alice (wid)	North Molton	1545	5

Surname	Forename (descent)	Parish	Year	Property
Pencombe	John (John3, John2, John1)	North Molton	1545	4
Pencombe	Richard (Richard3, Thomas2, John1)	Kings Nympton	1545	1
Pencombe	William (William2, John1)	North Molton	1545	6

I have repeated the 1544-45 Devon Lay Subsidy for the local area where the Pencombe family were living at this time. The spelling of Philip's surname is itself interesting but in that he is at Tawstocke it is in this area that the spelling of Pinkham is predominantly found in this family. I transcribed the entire set of Parish Registers for Bishops Nympton and the spelling there was always Pincomb or Pincombe. The same was true of the North Molton records with the addition of Pencomb, Pencombe along with Pincomb, Pincombe. South Molton Registers begin later than these two locations but tended to be Pyncombe or Pincombe.

The images provided by Carlos Pinkham included a number of items from the 1500s (30 baptisms and 14 marriages). Although I do have these in my Legacy file this is a different way of displaying them. It is also tentative as I try to acquire more proof for the relationships. But it does appear to work fairly well:

I did assign a number of these baptisms to what appears to be an appropriate family line. The family at Roborough by Torrington I suspect is a second family for John Pincomb of South Molton after the death of his first wife. The Pincombe at Molland is unknown at this time. The William Pincombe at Ilfracombe is also unknown.

Where ever a question mark is seen in the Note the line is definitely tentative but Thomas had the greatest number of grandchildren of all of his known siblings. The Rude family at Charles appears to be prominent there and likely the reason for the marriage being in Charles.

I still do not have a clear picture for Philip Pynkeham at Tawstock. There is a Philip Pyncombe baptizing children at Bideford in the latter part of the 1500s who is also unknown. The possible son of Philip Pynkeham at Tawstock named Edward Pencombe on the Devon Lay Subsidy 1581 does not appear to have baptized any children.

I find it interesting that this first recorded marriage is 1539 between Margaret Pincombe and Philip Kingdon and think that she is likely a sister to John, William and Thomas sons of John Pencombe. The next set of marriages are for the grandchildren of John Pencombe primarily.

John Pyncombe married Emet Hodge 1 Jul 1560 at North Molton (John3, Thomas2, John1)

Alice Pyncombe married William Lock 9 Nov 1561 at North Molton (Alice 3, Thomas2, John1)

William Pyncombe married Margrett Gregorye 26 Nov 1564 at North Molton (William3, William2, John1). This William died in 1564 and his widow Margarett married William Squire 26 May 1567.

Marye Pyncombe married George Squire 209 Jul 1567 at North Molton (Marye3, William2, John1)

Eme Pinckham married Philip Upcott 15 Jul Pynke1570 at Roborough by Torrington. It is unknown into which family line she belongs.

Agnes Pynckhin married Thoms Shurtte 12 Jun 1572 at Bideford. Possibly the older daughter of William (Agnes3,William2, John1).

Thomas Pincambe married Johan Rude 16 Oct 1575 at Charles. This would be a great grandson possibly of John1 (Thomas4, Richard3, Thomas2, John1). He died at Roborough in 1578.

Phillippe Pyncombe married Wilmote Beare 10 Feb 1583 at Bideford. I can not place Phillippe Pyncombe at this time.

Walter Pyncombe married Johanne Pyne 31 Jan 1587 at Bideford. I can not place Walter Pyncombe at this time.

John Pinckcombe married Jane Sherman 13 Jun 1594 at Barnstaple. Another great grandson possibly (John4, Christopher3, John2, John1) of John Pencombe. This would show that indeed the family lore that the Pincombe family at South Molton moved to Barnstaple (amongst other places) was correct. The will for John does exist and I will check it to see if he names his wife.

Richard Pencom married Joane Row 27 Jul 1599 at Abbotsham. This entry is from the Bishop's Transcripts and written up in Boyd's marriage Index (original image not available).

I did have a look at the Abbotsham possibilities and there are 171 results from the beginning to 1600. Most of them are from the Devon Wills Index. There are no entries for Pincombe/Pyncombe/Pencom/etc (the marriage was from the Transcripts). Abbotsham to Bideford is about 2 kilometres so not unreasonable to find a marriage there in this time period.

So from the marriages I have four records for whom I have no information - Eme Pinckham, Phillippe Pyncombe, Walter Pyncombe and Richard Pencom. Two records at Bideford, one at Roborough by Torrington and the fourth at Abbotsham. All are in fairly close proximity. Is this a different line (perhaps a sibling to John Pencombe) or a cousin.

The Excel file created from the images of Carlos Pincombe:

The Year has been repeated in order to give me a sort column. I will continue working on all of these data points through the different centuries. I found the 1500s to be the most interesting to me at the moment because that is the time of movement out of North Molton particularly to the west – Barnstaple/Bideford/etc. Did it answer any questions? Not really because I knew all of these records. There simply do not appear to be any records other than the Subsidy Rolls for Philip Pynkeham at Tawstocke. So he existed and postulating that he was a brother to John, William, Thomas and Margret a reasonable assumption. At this point in time I shall make that assumption to simply keep the initial generations unencumbered by an unknown line. Of note, Item 720 does not exist in the Bishops Nympton Parish Registers (I have transcribed the entire set of Registers from the beginning). What could prove interesting with this record for a Philip Pynkeham is a member of the Tynkeham family actually being the correct surname. YDNA could help to prove that but there isn't a Tynkeham/Tinkham yDNA study unfortunately. This surname is typically found in the area to the west south west of Exeter on the edge of the Dartmoor. It is thought to have arisen as a surname derived from the River Teign (early members were in Chagford, Devon). However, the surname spelling of the next individual at Tawstock in 1581 was Edward Pencombe so I am somewhat dubious of that idea. The spelling Pinkham arose in the early 1700s in the Barnstaple/Bideford area in some of the Pincombe families there although it could be earlier as well since I have not yet been through the records from the 1600s which were collected by Carlos Pinkham.

The left hand column of numbers referred to the order in which I transcribed from the images. The next set of numbers refers to the image number for the file from which I transcribed the information.

There will be further discussions on this data in the upcoming newsletters as I work my way through the 1600s and there are 361 individual items. Again I have many of these records in both the original charts and my own family line which was actually the largest eventually. My 4x great grandparents Pincomb had six children (of whom five produced substantial families) and my 3x great grandparents Pincomb had eight children and all but one had a sizeable family although one of the sons and his entire family were lost at sea whilst migrating to Canada.

2. The Pencombe family of Herefordshire

One might wonder why I became curious about the Pencombe family of Herefordshire and it was an accidental finding that sent me scurrying over to Herefordshire to see what I could find. I was going through the Calendar of Patent Rolls years ago and discovered an early record for a Pencomb living in Herefordshire.

1395 20 May Westminster (membrane 5)

Licence, for 100 s. paid in the hanaper by Philip Webbe, chaplain of a chantry of St. Mary in the parish church of Bromyard, for the alienation in mortmain by John Falke of a messuage in Bromyard, and by John Hunte or another there, and by Thomas Pencombe and Robert Stanford of five messuages and half an acre of meadow in the same place, not held in chief, to the said chaplain and his successors, in aid of their maintenance.

18 Richard II, volume 5, page 582

Bromyard is 4 miles ENE of Pencombe in Herefordshire.

This rather interesting record appeared when I absentmindedly decided to search on Pincombe in the Calendar of Patent Rolls. I was actually searching and collecting information on the various Blake families of England in these early records. But the search yielded this particular record which concerns a Thomas Pencombe. He is part of a group donating land/buildings to the Church for its maintenance. A very usual occurrence in the Church at this time for landowners to give up a portion of their estate/property to the Church for its maintenance in this case St Mary Bromyard. The year is 1395 so actually later than records that I have since found at the Archives of the United Kingdom. But it does tell me that in the latter part of the 1300s Thomas Pencombe was in a position to donate land/property to the maintenance of the Church although his likely ancestor John had suffered some loss during his time as the owner of land/property in this family (inherited from his father William) but Thomas has seemed to be able to recover from that loss. Into the 1400s once again this family has suffered loss but I have not yet ascertained the members of this family during the 1400s until we see likely John Pencombe with Lord de la Zouch at North Molton in the latter part of the 1480s.

I now have on order an Inquisition Postmortem for John Pencombe coded: C 135/178/25 Chancery: Inquisitions Post Mortem, Series I, Edward III. John Pencombe or de Pencombe: Herefordshire Held by: National Archives of the UK - Chancery, the Wardrobe, Royal Household, Exchequer and various commissions Date: 25 January 1363 - 24 January 1364: 37 Edw III Subjects: Landed Estates. The time period of 1363-64 is interesting and tells me that John has died in 1363 or prior to that date so that the Thomas in 1395 donating land may be a son or remotely a grandson although I tend to think he might be a son but the Inquisition Postmortem will likely mention all of the heirs and their relationship to John the individual for whom this record was created. I am busy once again learning Latin and have switched from using textbooks to duolingo and I am finding it most interesting. Because I had done a number of lessons in Latin already this first section is proceeding rapidly as I remember once again the many familial terms in Latin which I will definitely need to have reading this document.

I still have a couple of days before the posting of this newsletter and will share anything that I find if it is possible otherwise the next issue of this newsletter.

I did glean a few records from the archives of the United Kingdom.

It does appear the fortunes of the Pencombe family in the 1340s in Herefordshire have not improved by 1428 (third item from the UK Archives). (Henry VI was King from 1421 to 1471 but it was a broken reign and if this record is from the second reign it would refer to 1477 which is much closer to the date of interest (late 1480s). Only two female members of this family are mentioned at least I am assuming that Magote Drayton is a married daughter and Katherine Pencombe (but she could be a widow) still a spinster. Any children would not be mentioned likely in this document. It is still early though if 1428 but very interesting if actually 1477 as I am looking for a John de Pencombe still fairly young in the latter part of the 1480s. This is during the War of the Roses though and there was a lot of upheaval especially in the Midlands of England. Loss of life was high and likely quite a few minors in wardship. No records yet on that so will continue looking. I have now seen that John, William and Thomas are historically forenames in the Pencombe family which is also a step forward.

These marriage records are transcribed from the fiche of the original Parish Records for Landkey, Devon. I have changed the orientation of the newsletter to make it easier to publish the transcriptions for Landkey directly from my Excel file.
