2920. William Halstead Kipp [3995] was born on Aug 22, 1839 in New York, USA, died on Aug 20, 1918, aged 78, and was buried in Greenwood Cem., Brooklyn, Kings Co., NY, USA.

General Notes: He was Captain of the Seventh Regiment of the New York National Guard and resided in Brooklyn. In 1949 he is called Brig. Gen. He was also chief clerk of the New York City Police Department.

Colonel William Halstead Kipp, 71 years old, for almost thirty-four years Chief Clerk of the Police Department, died suddenly from apoplexy at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, 20 West 121st Street. Colonel Kipp was born on Manhattan Island, where his family had lived since the days of Henry Hudson, and was a son of Quinby Kipp, a wagonmaker. When he was 23 years old he enlisted in the 7th Regiment as a private and served with this regiment throughout the civil war and rose through all grades to Colonel of the regiment. Closing his fifty years as a soldier, Colonel Kipp reviewed the 7th Regiment at the armory on the night of Jan. 20, 1908. He was breveted a Brigadier General by Governor Hughes about the time of his retirement. On Aug. 6, 1873, Colonel Kipp was appointed deputy clerk of the Police Department, in which position he served until Nov. 24, 1884, when he was made chief clerk, remaining in this place until his death.

Death of N. E. W. Kipp

Norman E. W. Kipp, of Broughton, who was so seriously injured one week ago last Monday passed away Friday morning at nine o'clock. He did not regain consciousness after the accident, though at times he appeared not to be entirely insensible. Death came peacefully. The funeral was held Sunday morning at eleven o'clock at the Broughton school house, Rev. Esteppe officiating. The body was laid to rest in the Gatesville cemetery. Mr. Kipp was forty-seven years of age at the time of his death. He was an old settler in this county having come here many years ago. All his life he was more or less actively engaged in politics and was noted for his straight forward beliefs and honesty of purpose. Those who were associated with him in a political way were impressed by his sincerity of purpose in every thing. He made his home in Grant Township, about three miles east of Broughton, where he owned a large, fine farm. A wife and family are left to mourn his death. With them join a large circle of friends and acquaintances through-out the county. N. E. W. Kipp was born in Calhoun County, Mich., Nov. 10, 1854. At the age of 16 he removed with his parents to Grant Township, in this county where he has since made his home. He was united in marriage with Miss Adelia Schoonover, Nov. 1883 at Watervliet, Berrien County, Mich. On Jan. 13, 1902, he met with the accident which terminated in his death Friday, Jan. 17. He leaves his wife and eight daughters, also three brothers, Geo. T. of Clay Center; Hiram C. of Pratt county, Kan., Wm. T. of Sealing, Ok., and two sisters, Mrs. T. Ingersoll of Clay Center, Mrs. S. H. Randall of Watervliet, Mich., and numerous friends to mourn his death.

General Notes: OBIT

CIVIL WAR VETERAN ANSWERS DEATH CALL

Melbourne Kipp, Resident of Rockford Since 1884, Succumbed to Infirmities and Breakdown Caused by Pneumonia Attack.

Melbourne Kipp, one of the best known members of the G.L. Nevius Post, G.A.R., as a veteran of several of the bloodiest campaigns of the civil war, passed away last night at the home of a daughter, Mrs. J.A. Giffen, at Phoenix, Ariz., where he went in December to spend the winter. He had resided here since 1884.

The deceased was past 79 years of age, having been born near Elgin, Oct. 20, 1840. Here he grew to manhood and in 1862 answered Lincoln's call for volunteers. He enlisted in Company E. 12th Illinois cavalry, and served with the Army of the Potomac at Harper's Ferry, Antietam, Epperville, Gettysburg, Fredricksburg, Stoneman's raid and the Red River Campaign.

After the war he returned to Elgin and married Miss Vesta J. Panton. Five children were born to the couple, four of whom survive with the widow, Oliver, a son, dying in 1904. The children are Mrs. William Geddes, Owen township; Warren, residing in East Chicago; Mrs. Giffen, at whose home he died in Arizona, and Miss Nellie Kipp who lives at home, 312 Stanley Street, this city. Two brothers, Noah at Elgin, and Granville, at Reno, are also survivors. There are eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be announced when news of the arrival of the remains is learned.

General Notes: NOAH KIPP DIES IN ELGIN

Local relatives have been notified of the death of Noah Kipp. Civil War veteran, who died at Sherman hospital, Elgin, Friday morning.

Mr. Kipp had resided in or near Elgin nearly all his life. Several nephews and nieces reside here.

Funeral services were to be held today in Elgin.

Daily Register Gazette (Rockford) 4/14/1924 p8

"Obituary," The Elgin Daily News, April 12, 1924, p. 3.

Noah Kipp died at Sherman hospital at 5 o'clock last evening, following an illness. He was born February 19, 1843 at what was formerly known as Kipp's Corners, west of South Elgin, on the farm owned by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter Kipp, among the earliest township settlers.

Descendants of Hendrick Hendricksen Kip

He was a veteran of the Civil war and served with the 52nd Illinois Infantry and Co. G, 15th Illinois Cavalry, for three years and two months. Following the war he went west and remained for twenty years in Utah, Idaho and Wyoming. He then returned to Elgin and resided until December of 1923 when he went to St. Petersburg, Fla., for his health. He returned to Elgin April 9 and immediately went to Sherman hospital.

Surviving him are a brother Granville H. Kipp of Sacramento, Calif., and relatives in Rockford. His wife preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be held from the Fredrick and Curtis Undertaking parlors at 211 Chicago street, Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Interment at Bluff City cemetery.

3346. Louis Joseph Amedee Derome [6450] was born on May 24, 1841 in St. Paul de Lavaltrie, QC, Can, died on Jul 9, 1922 in Montreal, QC, Can, aged 81, and was buried on Jul 11, 1922 in Montreal, QC, Can.

General Notes: Unmarried.

He was only 15 when his parents, after a stay of a year in Montreal, settled at Joliette. Five years later, he went to St. Hyacinthe to study the art of photography and he lived some time in the city with Mr. De Lorimier.

At the age of 28 years, Joseph Hilarion Jobin (q.v.), his cousin, procured him a position in Montreal, in the service of the bookseller Jean Baptiste Rolland.

In 1878, he formed in partnership with Hubert C. Cadieux, a business of the same kind. The House of Cadieux and Derome became very prosperous and made a considerable business of importing. It was well known to all of the members of the catholic clergy and the communities of the country as well as in Europe.

Amédée Derome constructed a magnificent residence at the end of the Montée de Zouave, in Montreal, and received there a number of prominent people as well as many members of his family and several of the latter made a stay of residence of several years.

For business purposes of the house of Cadieux and Derome he made frequent trips to Europe - more than thirty times. He founded the directory of catholic clergy "Ecclesiastical Canada," today published by Beauchemin and in its sixty fourth year of publication

About 1902, the House of Cadieux Derome sustained several bad financial turn-overs and closed its doors. Mr. Derome entered at that time into the House of Beauchemin but about 1909 founded a new bookselling business under the name L.J.A. Derome Limited which only had several years of existence.

A very charitable and devout man, Mr. Derome founded, in 1881, the Adoration Nocturne, in Montreal, and he directed the activities until his death.

Remaining single, he lived the last twenty years of his life retired at the Hotel-Dieu of Montreal where he died the 9th July 1922. He was buried in the cemetery of the Côte de Neiges, in Montreal, in "a pine coffin, blackened without adornment," as he desired.

The abbot Elie J. Auclair, of the Royal Society of Canada, related the life and works of Louis Joseph Amédée Derome, in a brief account of 30 pages, published after his death in 1922, in which he described Mr. Amédée Derome with the title "saintly man of Montreal."

ACKERMAN, Jacob C., farmer, prominent citizen and Civil War veteran, of Biggsville, Ill., is of an old New Jersey family. He was born in Hudson County, that State, May 12, 1839, a son of Jacob and Gertrude (Cubberly) Ackerman. His parents came to Warren County, Ill., in 1857, he having preceded them two years earlier. They owned an eighty-acre farm in Biggsville Township, but bought another having improvements, and some years later removed to Kirkwood, Ill., where Mr. Ackerman died in 1879, and his wife June 2, 1808. He was born March 12, 1798. They had children named: John, Thomas, Mary, Sophia, Gertrude, Joseph, Jane, Cornelia and Jacob C. All except Gertrude, Cornelia and Jacob C. are dead. Gertrude, widow of Daniel Waldron, lives in St. Louis, Mo. Cornelia, widow of A. C. Van Riper, lives in Chicago, Ill.

At the age of sixteen years Jacob C. Ackerman began active life for himself as a farm hand in Warren County, Ill. Later he worked two years on farms in Henderson County, and after that worked a rented farm eight years, then bought 113 acres of land in Biggsville Township. This farm was broken and had some improvements, and a month after he took possession he sold sixty acres and bought eighty acres adjoining the remainder of his original farm, onto which he moved and where he lived till 1893, when he removed to Kirkwood. His son, Frederick B. Ackerman, manages the farm. Like his father before him, he does general farming and raises horses, cattle and hogs.

The following data concerning the children of Jacob C. Ackerman has been made available to us: Henry V. lives in Church In America, with about one hundred sketches of deceased ministers; with an introductory chapter on the history of the denomination, and appendices containing history of Rutgers College, of the New Brunswick Theological Seminary and various benevolent boards of the Church. In 1872 he published an interesting genealogy of the Corwin family containing an appendix of the Kip Family. He used to write his sermons in shorthand and preached from these shorthand notes. He also edited The Amsterdam Correspondance for the Legislature of the State of New York. He was a man of unusual intellect and ability.

3968. William Ruloff Kip [2931] was born on Mar 18, 1876 in Rhinecliff, Dutchess Co., NY, USA, died on Apr 6, 1935 in Greenport, Long Island, USA, aged 59, and was buried in Rhinebeck, Dutchess Co., NY, USA.

General Notes: Autographs from documents, ranging from 1721 to 1901. After the death of his father in 1888, William spent 1888-89 in England and Europe. In 1890-93 he attended St. John's Military Academy in Sing Sing (now Ossining). In the fall of 1893 he went to Westminster School - then situated in Dobbs Ferry, from which he was graduated in 1894. In 1894 he entered Yale Scientific School, but left at Christmas time to enter Art School. He studied there for three years and then went to Paris where he lived for three years and studied art under Lionel Waldon. He was fond of travelling having been around the world twice. He spent 10 winters on the Nile. His chief interests proved to be Egyptology, archaeology and genealogy.

Most of his summers were spent at Ankony Kip estate at Rhinebeck. He spent time going through many of the old Kip papers and became a student of Kip genealogy. In WW II he did not serve overseas but served as a Lieutenant in the American Protective League, and was a member of the United States Food Commission. He was a member of many organizations including the Dutchess County Society, Dutchess County Historical Society, New York Historical Society and the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society.

He died at his country home at Greenport, LI. Funeral services were held at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York City.

Kipp, now deceased(1976) in Waverly, NY. Homer was 89 years of age on February 21, 1970. Other information , though gained by individual contacts is believed to be authentic.

Three Kipp brothers came to the US some time before the year 1776 from Germany, through Holland and settled on Long Island, NY. Because of the invasion of the British in the war they were forced to leave and their land was confiscated.

Homer Kipp's Great Grandfather(one of the three), went to Philadelphia, Pa, another went to Montreal, Canada, and the third settled near Albany, NY.

It is believed the Kipps in this area, Bradford County, are descendants of the families from the Albany, NY area.

One of the men, more prominent in past times, was George Kipp, who lived in Kingston and later Towanda, Pa. He was from the family who settled in Canada.

George was in the lumber business in Lopez and Ricketts, Pa. with Floyd Kizer, of Towanda. After the lumber mill was closed they netted about 30,000 which was considered a fortune at that time.

Later Clark, who owned a store at Lopez, Kizer, and Kipp bought a track of land in elk county and called the place Cortez. Cortez is a small town when the Kizer were born.

When George Kipp died he was on a trip in western Canada to buy a lumber tract. His home at the time was Towanda, Pa., and at one time he was president of the First National Bank, about 1898and a member of the senate from the district.

Homer married Catherine [Kipp] [8015] [MRIN: 2772] circa 1909. Catherine was born in 1880.

Homer next married Elva G [Kipp] [8016] [MRIN: 2773] circa 1923. Elva was born circa 1889 in Pennsylvania, USA.

3993. Edith M Kipp [8006] was born in Mar 1869 in Ledgedale, PA, USA, died in 1944 in Plainfield, NJ, USA, aged 75, and was buried in Milford Cem., Milford, Pike Co., PA, USA.

4387. Joseph Whitson Kipp [4290] was born on Dec 7, 1857 in Leland, LaSalle, IL, USA and died on Apr 27, 1931 in Horton, Brown Co., KS, USA, aged 73.

General Notes: Joseph Whitson Kipp and Loretta Jane Hannah were married in Brown County, Kansas on September 7, 1879 at Loretta's parents home 7 miles south of Hiawatha. They settled on a farm in Brown County where their first son was born. Later they moved to Willis, Kansas, when the town was started and entered the mercantile business. Their second son was the first child born in Willis. After leaving Willis they lived two years in Howell County, Missouri, (near West Plains) where their third son was born. He died after their return from Missouri and before the birth of their fourth son in Atchinson County, Kansas. They later moved to Horton, Kansas, where their only daughter, Winifred, was born. Kearney County, Kansas was their next location where they lived five years, followed by three years in Norris County, Kansas, after which they returned to Horton and spent the remainder of their lives. Borth died at Horton. Both are buried in the Claytonville Cemetery, four miles north of Willis, Brown, Kansas.

Loretta came to Brown County with her parents in a wagon train in 1867 from near Red Oak, Iowa. Loretta was blind the last twenty-four and half years of her life.

Joseph was 17 when he came to Kansas from Illinois and lived with an uncle (Gilbert Kipp) northwest of Willis.

Randall

Hiram H Randall died Friday night at the home of his aunt Mrs. Kipp at Broughton, the cause of death being due to tuberculosis of which he had been a sufferer for some time. The young man had been traveling around considerably search of a climate that would be beneficial, but his efforts proved of no avail and his young life came to an end about two o'clock Friday night. He was twenty-four years and seven months old. He was a nephew of George Kipp of Clay Center.

The funeral was I held Sunday at twelve o'clock at the M. E. Church at Broughton, Rev. F. M. Jackson officiating. The remains were brought to Clay Center for burial in Greenwood cemetery.

General Notes: He married the 3rd June 1907, in the church St. Jacques de Montreal, to Marie Aline Larocque.

Charles Georges Derome, son of Gustave Derome and Evéline Gadbois, was born in Salix, Iowa, United States, the 4th February 1877. After the death of his mother in 1892, he came to Canada, with the other members of the family of Gustave Derome, and lived in Joliette then later in Montreal.

He entered into a partnership with his cousin, Arthur Richard, and formed the Bookstore Ville Marie and much later entered into the service of his uncle Louis Joseph Amédée Derome.

He practiced afterwards as a public bookkeeper and for a number of years before his decease had charge of an important bookkeeping department of the city of Montreal.

The 3rd June 1907, in the church St. Jacques of Montreal, he married Marie Aline Larocque, daughter of Louis Hertel de Rouville Larocque and Lilia Yrumberry de Salaberry. By a strange coincidence, Aline Larocque was born the same day as her husband, the 4th February 1877. She was a descendant of the de Salaberry family who so often distinguished itself in the course of the history of Canada.

Joseph married Adrienne Bissonnette [6517] [MRIN: 2215] on Nov 26, 1914.

4756. Marie Rachel Derome [6503] was born on Jul 19, 1883 in Salix, IA, USA and was christened in Salix, IA, USA.

General Notes: Rachel Derome, daughter of Gustave Derome and Evéline Gadbois, was born in Salix, Iowa, United States, the 19th July 1883. She came to Canada with the rest of the family after the decease of Mrs. Gustave Derome.

The 2nd April 1907, at the church St. Jacques, in Montreal, she married Paul Bonard, grandson of an admiral of the marines of the French Republic and son of Léon Bonard and Laurence de Solerène, of Rochefort, France.

Paul Bonard was a French citizen and when the first great war of 1914-1918 broke out was called to the defense of France. He was gravely hurt in combat, in 1915 and died of his wounds two years later, at Bordeaux, the 20th December 1917. Mrs. Bonard, who had rejoined her husband, in France, lived there after his decease and went with her parent -in-laws to Rochefort, and also, after a time to Paris.

She returned to the country in 1925 and the 8th February 1927, in the church St. Nicholas d'Ahuntsic, in Montreal, she married Joseph Filiatrault, well know merchant, of Saint-Laurent Street, in Montreal. Son of Cyriac Filiatrault and Lucie Henry dit Langlois, Joseph Filiatrault was born the 20th April 1872 and was married in a first wedding to Marie Anne Turgeon who gave him eight children. He died at Montreal, the 14th September 1939, leaving Rachel Derome widow a second time.

Rachel Derome Bonard-Filiatrault lived in Montreal. Her strange life was the subject of biographical novel "Quelle Vie," done under the pen of Adrienne Maillet, published in 1942 in Montreal.

1st married the 2nd April 1907, in the church St. Jacques de Montreal, to Paul Bonard; 2nd married the 9th February 1927, in the church St. Nicolas de Ahuntsic, Montreal, to Joseph Filiatrault.

There were no children issued from the marriage of Joseph Filiatrault to Rachel Derome.

General Notes: He was a Methodist missionary starting about 1903, in Quesua, Angola, Africa.

He spent about 23 years as a missionary in Central Africa. During that time he was a preacher, teacher, school principal, district superintendent, educational supervisor, treasurer, and itinerant evangelist. He produced two school primers in the Kimbundu tongue (Angola). To do this he had to reduce the language to writing. He also used illustrations from the African child's background. He also translated into Kimbundu and Portuguese, Wentworth's "First Book of Arithmetic."

Obituary

G.W. Brannan was born Jan. 7, 1856 at Pecatonica, Ill., and died Aug. 29, 1922 at the age of 66 years 7 months and 22 days. He was married to Etta Couse Sept. 3, 1880 at Rockford, Ill. To this union eight children were born, three of whom died in infancy. The wife and mother died Jan. 6, 1895.

Mr. Brannan and children moved to Iowa in Oct. 1899 to his farm south of Gruver where he lived until two years ago. Moving to Gruver, Iowa.

There are left to mourn his death 5 children and seven grandchildren all of Gruver, one sister, Mrs. Sarah Wells of Pecatonica, Ill., and one brother, Alfred Brannan of Mossy Rock, Washington.

Mr. Brannan joined the M.W.A. Lodge in 1886, Eureka camp no. 500 of Pecatonica, Ill., being a charter member of that camp. (Estherville Enterprise, Estherville, IA, September 13, 1922)

George Brannan of Gruver Passes Away

The unexpected and sad news of the passing away of George Brannan came from Cherokee to Gruver on Tuesday.

Mr. Brannan was born Jan. 7, 1856, at Peacatonica, Ill., and died Aug. 29, 1922, at the age of 66 years, 7 months and 22 days.

He was married to Etta Couse, on Sept. 3, 1880 at Rockford, Ill. To this union eight children were born, three of whom died in infancy. The wife and mother died Jan. 6, 1895.

Mr. Brannan and children moved to Iowa in October, 1879 [1889]. Those left to mourn his loss are Mrs. Sadie Kreiger, Mrs. Kate Grimms [Grem's], Mrs. Susie Grimms [Grem's], Iva and Ray, all residing at Gruver; and one sister living in Illinois.

The funeral services were held at Gruver, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. After the services the remains were taken to Estherville and shipped to Illinois where he will be laid to rest beside his wife. The remains were accompanied by members of the family.

The community has lost a neighbor and friend and is in sympathy with the bereaved.

Mr. Brannan joined the M.W.A. lodge in 1886, Eureka camp No. 500 of Peacatonica, Ill, being a charter member of that camp. The Woodmen lodge lost a faithful member.

Mr. Brannan left Gruver in apparently good health. A stroke of paralysis was the cause of his death. He had gone to Cherokee to take treatment for cancer.

5108. Frederic Ellsworth Kip [1577] was born on Jan 1, 1862 in Passaic, Passaic Co., NJ, USA and died on Jan 22, 1938 in Montclair, Essex Co., NJ, USA, aged 76.

General Notes: The author of The Kip Family In America, (K.F.A.). Photographs p. 216, 218.

Frederic was educated in the public schools of Passaic. In 1878, at the age of 16, he started working as an office boy. Over the years he worked in sales for various firms. In 1895 Frederic in conjunction with several others purchased the American Pile Fabric Plant of Sir Titus Salt's Co., at Bridgport, CT. The Salt's Textile Mfg. Co. of Conn. was incorporated with Mr. Kip as President. He remained President of this and other companies until 1925. In 1928 he organized the Kip Oil Company with his son Ruloff.

He was a member of the New York Yacht Club, the Union League Club of New York, the Holland Society of New York, and the Sons of the American Revolution. He invented, and has taken out some 100 U.S. patents mainly for improvements in looms. He is the author of books on tariff, industry, agriculture, and social conditions.

Their early married life was spent in New York City, and in their home at Essex, N.J. In 1897 they moved to Upper Montclair, N.J. In 1902 they started building the Estate "Kypsburg" at Montclair, N.J. In 1905 the house was completed. He sold it in 1926. It is now referred to as Kip's Castle. Photographs of Kypsburg p. 232-243.

The newspaper articles indicate that he was found dead in his garage from auto fumes. Officials at the time pronounced the case a suicide.

The biography reads, Quote:

"Henry BUTCHERT

Henry Butchert, son of Mrs. Alice Buckley of Dinuba, worked as doorman at the State Theatre before the Japs bombed Pearl Harbor. Henry enlisted in the Army, January 8, 1942, and was sent to Sheppard Field, Texas, for first training and then to Will Rogers Field, Oklahoma for basic training and graduated as a Corporal. He spent some time finishing training at High Point Hill, Greensborough, North Carolina and then to a camp in Virginia. In Oct. 1942 he went to North Africa and has progressed from point to point in the Allies Advance through the African Campaign on to Sicily and in Oct. 1943 word was received he had left Sicily. He wrote that things were quite rough for a while. He is an air force radio technician. In January, 1944, Butchert wrote that he was in Italy, and had visited Naples, Pompeii, and intended to visit the Isle of Capri. He was in Rome, and from there was sent to Corsica in July, 1944. In August, 1944, he was still located there." (Biography file courtesy of Liz Farthing)

General Notes: Bernice was known by most as Grandma. It didn't matter if you were related by marriage, if you were a great (or great-great) grandchild, or just a neighbor down the street, everyone just called her Grandma. She never shied away from helping others, and thrived off canning fruits and vegetables and making jams from the fruits she grew in her own garden.

Bernice was adopted, however most never knew this. It was not something she spoke of. In her eyes, she was a Smith, she was her parents child and it didn't matter that a paper said that rather than her genes.

For some time, during the depression, she lived in Clawson with her growing family. Thomas built a kit home on the corner of Nahma and 14 Mile Rd in Clawson that also stands today (behind the current strip mall). Shortly after their youngest child, Arthur, was born, the family lost the home to the Great Depression and moved yet again to a smaller home in Clawson.

Tragedy struck the Curtis family in 1927, when their newborn son, Thomas Lee, died 10 days after birth.

After the house she grew up in with her parents left the family for many years, she and her husband were able to get it back into the family. She lived in that house on the corner on Glaspie and Burdick in Oxford until she was 93 years old. The house still stands at 77 Burdick in Oxford, but has been reverted from a main house with separate maid living quarters back to one full house. There is also a detached garage.

Lifelong Oxford resident Iva Bernice Curtis died Saturday, December 27, 1997. She was 99 years old.

Of note, Mrs. Curtis' father, Melvin Smith, helped build Arnold School on Lakeville Road, which Mrs. Curtis attended when she was six years old.

"She used to ride her horse to town to go to school," her son, Ralph said, adding that she grew up on a farm off of Lakeville Road, near the old Grampion ski lodge.

In 1914 she worked as a telephone operator in Oxford. She was married to Thomas J. Curtis on Nov. 29, 1916.

The Leader reported when Mrs. Curtis celebrated her 99th birthday on March 23, 1997. Over 100 friends and relatives attended the party at her daughter Elsie's home in Lapeer.

She is survived by her children, Mrs. Elsie (Murle) Davis of Lapeer, Ralph (Ruth) Curtis of Oxford, Charles (Marma) Curtis of Oxford and Arthur (Carol) Curtis of FL.

She is also survived by 22 grandchildren, 54 great-grandchildren and 22 great-great grandchildren and 130 foster grandchildren, "She was always 'grandma' to them," her daughter Elsie said.

Mrs. Curtis was preceded in death by her husband Melvin [sic: newspaper reported her husband as Melvin, her husband's name is Tom] in 1969 and her son Melvin "Keith" Curtis in 1981.

Funeral services were Wednesday, December 31 at Bossardet Funeral Home, Elder Arthur Curtis officiating. Interment is at Ridgelawn Memorial Cemetery of Oxford. Memorials to McLaren Hospice of Lapeer would be appreciated.

General Notes: SP3 US Army, Korea.

Rev. Charles Barnes Hewlett, 76 years old, of Independence, Iowa, died on Saturday, October 24, 2009, at West Village Care Center in Independence following a short illness. He was born on May 26, 1933, in Kansas City, Kansas, the son of Willard Merriam and Michal Amanda Caroline (Rutherford) Hewlett, Sr. He graduated from high school in Hutchinson, Kansas, and on April 12, 1953, he and the former Esther Annalee Bland were married in Hutchinson, Kansas. Rev. Hewlett then served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict. After his discharge, he graduated (in 1960) from the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, Illinois.

Rev. Hewlett was 6 years old when his father became a minister. Rev. Hewlett entered the ministry on June 10, 1960. He and his family moved to Iowa in 1964 and he started preaching at the Pine Creek Mission Baptist Church (rural Independence) in November of 1965. He continued there for thirty-nine and a half years. Then, at the age of 71, he became an associate pastor at First Baptist Church in Independence. During his ministry, Rev. Hewlett also led services and/or Bible Studies at East Towne Care Center, West Village Care Center, the Buchanan County Health Center LTC, and Prairie Hills Assisted Living, all in Independence. He also was a volunteer for Pastoral Care at Allen Hospital in Waterloo, Iowa.

Rev. Hewlett also owned and operated Raymond Printing in Independence from 1972 to 1995. He was a member of the Sheehan-Tidball American Legion Post #30 and the First Baptist Church, both in Independence. He may have slowed down as he aged, but he never retired.

6010. Georges Maurice Derome [6551] was born on Jun 8, 1911 in Montreal, QC, Can and was christened on Jun 10, 1911 in Montreal, QC, Can.

General Notes: Joseph Louis Herve Georges Maurice Derome, son of Charles Georges Derome and Aline La Rocque de Roqubrune, was born in Montreal, the 8th June 1911 and was baptized in the church of St. Jacques of Montreal the same day.

The 16th February 1935, in the chapel of the Institution des Sourdes et Muettes (Deaf and Dumb), parish St. Louis de France, in Montreal, he married Dorothy Bengle, born the 5th July 1913, in Pineconning, State of Michigan, United States, daughter of Ernest Bengle and Stella Deneau.

Maurice Derome studied cabinet-making in Montreal and after several years in the business in Montreal became attached to furniture factory in Montmagny, Que.

Member of the Maisonneuve Regiment and of the army reserve for several years, he enrolled with the rank of regimental adjutant, from the beginning of hostilities in September 1939. He was promoted to Lieutenant-Colonel and commanded Canadian Regiments in action in different phases of the second great war.

He had charge of diverse special missions of high importance and at the end of the war was decorated with the medal of the Order of the British Empire.

He was present at and took part in negotiations in Holland, which lead to the surrender of the German armies in Holland to the command of the Canadian armies in this country.

After the hostilities, he was named special military advisor to the government of the Low Countries, to assist in the reorganization of the armies of this country. In this capacity, he became attached to the regimental adjutant of Prince Bernhardt and was decorated with the Order of Orange and Nassau.

General Notes: Jean Bonard, son of Paul Bonard and Rachel Derome, was born the 1st February 1908, at the East Main River, at Hudson Bay, and was baptized the 24th September 1911, in the church St. Louis de France, in Montreal, after the parents returned from Hudson Bay.

After the death of Paul Bonard, his father, in France, he went to live in this country, where he received his education. Reaching the military age he did his compulsory service in the French military air-force and flying became his chosen career.

On returning to Canada about 1927 he was employed in commercial aviation. Experienced pilot, he was engaged, during the second great war, by Quebec Airways Limited as instructor for teaching the art of aerial navigation to the cadets of the Royal Canadian Air-Force Corp, at the old Lorette airport, near Quebec. During the war, he continued to be involved in commercial aviation.

The 11th November 1939, in the Cathedral of Joliette, he married his cousin, Gabrielle Prévost (see No. 139), oldest daughter of Emile Prévost and Marie Anne Leprohon, of Joliette.

Longtime Gruver Resident Dies at Age of 77

Raymond Brannan, about 77, longtime resident of the Gruver area, died today at 2:30 a.m. at a hospital in Cherokee. Death was attributed to a heart condition and pneumonia.

Mr. Brannan was born at Tonica, Ill., the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brannan. The family moved to Iowa in 1898.

For many years Mr. Brannan and his sister, the late Iva Brannon, farmed in the Gruver area and after retirement from the farm, established their home in Gruver.

Survivors of Mr. Brannan include three sisters, Mrs. Frank (Kate) Grems and Mrs. Walter (Susie) Grems, both of Estherville, and Mrs. Henry (Sadie) Krieger, Lockport, Ill.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his sister, Iva.

Funeral arrangements have not been made as yet but will be published in tomorrow's Daily News. The body is being returned here today to the Sternborg-Reese Funeral Home. (Estherville Daily News, Estherville, IA, February 3, 1961)

Mrs. Susie Grems Dies

Mrs. Susie Grems, 80, of Estherville, died Sunday [October 2, 1966] afternoon at the Good Samaritan Center, where she had been a resident since last December.

The former Susie Louise Brannan was born Jan. 6, 1886, at Pecatonica, Ill., to George and Etta Brannan. She received her education in Illinois and in Emmet County, where she moved with her parents in 1899.

Her family farmed south of Gruver.

April 29, 1909, she was married to Walter Grems at Estherville. They farmed near Gruver until 1945, when they moved to Estherville.

Her husband died in 1962.

Mrs. Grems is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Edna Julius of Estherville; three sons, Willis, Lester and Merle, all of Estherville; 17 grandchildren; 16 great grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Henry (Zadie) Krieger of Lockport, Ill.

Services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Reese-Henry Funeral Home, Rev. H. Alan Wirtz officiating. Burial will be in East Side Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home until time of services. (Estherville Daily News, Estherville, IA, October 3, 1966)

General Notes: Andrew McLean IV was a banker, manufacturer, and two term mayor of Passaic, New Jersey. He was born in Troy, New York. When he was a boy his parents moved the family to Jersey City, New Jersey. After Public School education in Jersey City, at age 19, Andrew started working for his father at the "Andrew McLean Company"(they made Mosquito netting and other cotton goods). In 1888 Andrew IV became head of the company, and in 1889 he transferred the mill from Paterson, NJ to Passaic, NJ (with an office in New York City). The Passaic mill still exists on a street he named Virginia in honor of his mother. On May 15, 1926 he and his employees celebrated the 100th anniversary of the firm's establishment. In July 1928, the company took over the controlling interest in T.R. Goodlatte & Sons, Inc. Delawanna. Then, around the 1940s, the Andrew McLean Company closed.

Andrew had also been vice president and a director of the Peoples Bank and Trust Company of Passaic since it was founded in 1891. In 1895 he was elected Mayor and re-elected two years later. He was also active in clubs such as the Union League of New York (the old Seventh Regiment), Sons of the Revolution, and the Thousand Island Yacht Club in New York where he was a commodore.

During the summers months, Andrew and his family would stay at their vacation home on Zavikon Island (located near Alexanderia Bay, New York in the heart of the Thousand Islands area of the St. Lawrence River). He built and owned was is falsely known as the "smallest international bridge" in the world. The bridge is in Canada.

George Washington Cole was born in New York City, the oldest child of Frank Raymond Cole and his first wife Anna Sigley (Hollins) Cole. He lived for some time in Brooklyn, attended Columbia University, and received his A.B. Degree from Culver-Stockton College in Canton, Missouri. In 1937, he received a Master of Divinity from Drew Theological Seminary in Madison, New Jersey. He was ordained a deacon by the United Methodist Church in 1938 and made an elder in 1940.

Rev. Cole preached his first sermon in a one room schoolhouse near Canton, Missouri, when he was attending Culver-Stockton College. His pastorates were in Harrison, Sparta, Ogdensburg, Flanders, Drakestown, Bayonne, Metuchen, Elizabeth (Park), Staten Island (St. Mark's and Asbury), Jersey City (Simpson-Grace), and Washington (all in the New Jersey Conference except Staten Island).

Rev. Cole was married twice, first to Florence Preston, and second, to Florence Irene Holding. In total, he had four children.

Besides being a faithful pastor, Rev. Cole had many interests. He loved the beauty of God's creation and various art forms that express it. He was a beekeeper, raised African Violets, collected stamps, and loved to camp with his family and friends. At the time of his death, Rev. Cole was a member of the Washington Kiwanis Club as well as the chaplain of Mansfield Masonic Lodge.

Rev. George W. Cole once stated: "...[To] be a shepherd is one of the minister's greatest privileges. He is called to preach, to proclaim the Gospel; he is called to teach, to assist in the search for truth for both children and adults; he is called to administer the work of the Church so that all shall be done with order and effectiveness. But most of all he is called to be a 'pastor,' friend, confidant, a sharer of life's burdens and problems in the name and in the spirit of Jesus Christ."

George married Florence Preston [11484] [MRIN: 3971].

George next married Florence Irene Holding [11485] [MRIN: 3972]. Florence was born in 1918, died in 1976, aged 58, and was buried in Washington Cem., Washington, Warren Co, NJ, USA.

General Notes: Richard K. Russell the first child of Elmer and Zelma Russell, was born January 10, 1933, in Stafford, Kansas, and died at his home in Mankato, Kansas, on May 22, 2009, at the age of 76 years, 4 months, and 12 days.

As a child, Richard attended Center View School and Antrim School in Rural Stafford County. In 1951, he graduated from St. John High School in St. John, Kansas. He farmed for a year and then attended Kansas State University. He entered the army, for about two years, stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas, and El Paso, Texas. At Fort Bliss, he was involved in guided missile training and was the first group sent overseas to Germany.

After leaving the army, he returned to K-State and then transferred to Fort Hays State University. There, he met and married Connie Dempsey on June 6, 1959. To this union, twin daughters were born. Connie preceded Richard in death in 1998. Richard married Yvonne Schulze on June 3, 2000. They later divorced and remained friends. She survives.

Activities that Richard enjoyed doing during his lifetime were: tennis, table tennis, water-skiing, horseshoes, hunting, predator calling, trap shooting, fishing, and playing golf. Some of these activities he excelled in and received recognition or awards. He was the first registered crow hunting guide in the nation and he hunted other wildlife such as, coyotes, turkeys, pheasants, and deer. He was the Animal Control Officer in Mankato before becoming ill.

Richard was talented as a handyman as he could repair almost anything, He had an inventive mind and he created items such as, a solar-heated ice-fishing hut, and an air-conditioned hat before the manufacturing of air-conditioned tractor cabs.

"The Greatest Thing That Ever Happened" to him was when he committed his life to Jesus Christ on August 22, 1970. He frequently told people about the blessings that God had given him.

Survivors include two daughters – Richelle Russell and Danielle Russell of McPherson, Kansas; and a brother, Roger and wife Virginia Russell of St. John, Kansas, and a host of other relatives and friends.

A celebration of Richard K. Russell's life will be Friday, May 29, 2009, at 1:30 p.m., at the Harmony United Methodist Church, Mankato, Kansas, with Pastors Tessa Zerling, and Dan Dempsey officiating. Music was performed by Carl Philo. Casket bearers were: Wayne Dempsey, Richard Denson, Rick Russell, Rod Russell, Rusty Russell, and Ryan Russell. Honorary casket bearers were: Howard Coen, Jack Painter, Evan Vernon, Charles Fritzemeier, Don Fritzemeier, and Ron Weber. The family will have a private interment service at the Pleasant View Cemetery at 2452 N Road, Mankato, Kansas. The family suggests memorials to Solomon Valley Hospice and Jewell County Hospital, in care of the Mortuary. Melby Mortuary, Mankato, Kansas, was in charge of arrangements.

Retired LCS bus driver, 91, gets behind wheel again, if only for a moment
LAPEER -- More than 25 years after she retired as a Lapeer Community Schools bus driver, Elsie Davis, 91, returned to the school bus garage for the year-end transportation department pot luck luncheon and was coaxed into sitting behind the wheel of one of the district's new extended length buses.
Davis let another district bus driver give her a quick spin in the new bus. "There's been a lot of changes," Davis said of the new generation of school buses. "This was a beautiful, long one." Among the changes she noted were AM/FM radios, a bus intercom, automatic transmission and no manual door handle.
Davis began driving for the District about 1961 and retired about 1982 after 21 years of negotiating the rural roads of Lapeer County. At the luncheon she showed off a 1977 newspaper article written about her and her co-workers at the bus garage.
Davis' husband died in 1999. The couple helped raise 200 foster children.

Obituary for Gordon Riddle MD

Gordon E. Riddle

Family Physician,?Civil Aviation Medical Examiner

Assistant Professor, Family Medicine, NOSM, Ottawa University

Pilot

Husband, father, grandpa, brother, uncle, brother-in-law

Gordon passed away July 24, 2013, at St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto, following a cycling accident. He is survived by his loving wife Linda Acton-Riddle, his daughters Erin Riddle (Edward Masuda) & Carol-Ann Riddle (Richard Brown), his grandson Hudson Riddle-Masuda, and his brothers Robert (Ellan) and Ernest (Jackie).

Gordon was born in Burford, Ontario. At the age of 19, he joined the Air Force and trained as a radar technician, working in numerous locations across Canada. It was while stationed at Ramore, Ontario, that he met his future wife, Linda Acton, at Trinity United Church in Kirkland Lake. He left the air force and moved to Ottawa in 1968 to attend the University of Ottawa, securing first his Bachelor of Science and then going on to receive his Doctorate of Medicine in 1976. A well-respected family physician working in private practice in Orleans, as well as at local hospitals and nursing homes, Gordon went on to serve as President of the Ontario College of Family Physicians from 2001 to 2002.

He realized a life-long dream of becoming a pilot in 2003, and often took friends, co-workers, and family up for flights around the area. Gordon and Linda moved to Bracebridge, Ontario, so that he could join a team of family physicians and he continued to take on students and medical residents as he enjoyed learning and sharing with them. He had a great interest in the environment and conservation, and loved canoeing at the cottage and visiting nature reserves.

Avid travelers, Gordon and Linda traveled extensively throughout their marriage, visiting friends in Australia, New Zealand, across Canada and then joining a group of friends to travel more recently to Israel, China, India, Germany, Russia, and most recently again to Scotland and Ireland.

He lived his life in service of others and was currently planning to travel to Africa to help diagnose women with cancer following his upcoming retirement. He was planning many things in retirement including flying his plane more, reading, and participating at international builds with Habitat for Humanity. He tried to live by the four L's '96 live, love, learn, leave a legacy. He will never be forgotten.

Friends will be received at Reynolds Funeral Home 'Turner Chapel', 1 Mary St., Bracebridge, ON, on Friday, August 2, 2013, from 6-9 p.m. A celebration of Gordon's life will be held at the Bracebridge United Church, 46 Dominion St, Bracebridge, ON, on Saturday, August 3, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. As your expression of sympathy, memorial donations made to Habitat for Humanity Muskoka (<http://www.habitatmuskoka.com>), Bracebridge United Church (<http://www.bracebridgeunitedchurch.ca>) or The Ronnie Fund (donations will go to the Wongonyi medical clinic - <http://www.easysite.com/theronniefund>) would be appreciated by the family. BYRNE

Byrne, Robert E., Jr. of Paw Paw. Bob was born on August 6, 1923, the son of Robert and Eleanor (Leach) Byrne in Grand Rapids, Michigan. He grew up in Flint, Michigan, where he graduated from Flint Junior College in 1942.

On September 15, 1942, he married his high school sweetheart, Mary Alice Currie, who preceded him in death on January 9, 2005.

They are survived by three daughters: Kathleen (Joseph) Ossmann, Randa Lynn Silber, and Sheryl (Kenneth) Jordan, all of Paw Paw, and son: Michael (Diana) Byrne of Lawton; nine grandchildren: David (Michele) Ossmann, Michael (Emily) Ossmann, Tyler, Jody, and Jessica Silber, Erin (Rob) Augustine, Evan Jordan, Jason (Kat) Byrne, and Ryan Byrne, three great-grandchildren and one on the way.

His family was all-important, and in Bob's words, "They are all great!"

His attendance at Michigan State College was interrupted by WWII in April of 1943. He last served as a 1st Lt. of the Army Corps of Engineers in the 5250th Technical Intelligence Co., as an enemy equipment investigator, part of Gen. MacArthur's headquarters staff in Japan. He received a Mechanical Engineering degree in 1945 from Louisiana State University while in the service.

He finished two degrees in Chemistry at Michigan State University in 1947 and 1949 after his discharge. Upon graduation he was employed by Union Carbide Chemical Corp. and worked as a chemist for 35 years in Charleston, WV, Bound Brook, NJ, and Niagara Falls, NY before retiring to MI in March of 1983.

Bob was an elder of the First Presbyterian Church, Paw Paw, a member of the American Chemical Society and the American Society for Testing Materials. He served on the Paw Paw District Library Board, Friends of the Library Board, and volunteered for Meals on Wheels and Habitat for Humanity.

Bob was a master gardener who also enjoyed woodworking, building houses, and reading. He sang in church and community choral groups for over 60 years.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the First Presbyterian Church, Paw Paw District Library, Hospice of Van Buren County, or Habitat for Humanity. Bob's life will be celebrated at a memorial service to be held at 11:00 AM Saturday, April 2 at the First Presbyterian Church, 120 Pine Street, Paw Paw. A private graveside service at Ft. Custer
